NEWS RELEASE

NYSE to Suspend Trading Immediately in National Bank of Greece S.A. (NBG) and Commence Delisting Proceedings

11/27/2015

NEW YORK, November 27, 2015 – The New York Stock Exchange announced today that the staff of NYSE Regulation, Inc. has determined to commence proceedings to delist the American Depositary Shares (each representing one ordinary share) of National Bank of Greece S.A. (the "Company") — ticker symbol NBG – and American Depositary Shares, Series A (each representing one Non-Cumulative Preference Shares, Series A) — ticker symbol NBG PRA – from the NYSE. Trading in each series of the Company's American Depositary Shares will be suspended immediately.

NYSE Regulation determined that the Company is no longer suitable for listing based on "abnormally low" price levels of the Company's American Depositary Shares, pursuant to Section 802.01D of the NYSE Listed Company Manual.

The Company has a right to a review of this determination by a Committee of the Board of Directors of NYSE Regulation, Inc. The NYSE will apply to the Securities and Exchange Commission to delist the American Depositary Shares and the American Depositary Shares, Series A Non-Cumulative Preference Shares pending completion of all applicable procedures, including any appeal by the Company of the NYSE Regulation staff's decision.
