

PINNACLE FOODS INC.
NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE
COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
CHARTER
(Revised as of February 14, 2018)

I. PURPOSE

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Pinnacle Foods Inc. (the “Company”) shall provide assistance to the Board by, among other things:

- A. Identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board, consistent with the criteria approved by the Board and selecting, or recommending that the Board select, the director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders or to fill vacancies or newly created directorships that may occur between such meetings;
- B. Developing and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company;
- C. Overseeing the evaluation of the Board;
- D. Recommending members of the Board to serve on committees and reviewing the self-evaluations of the committees of the Board; and
- E. Otherwise taking a leadership role in shaping the corporate governance of the Company.

II. STRUCTURE AND OPERATIONS

Composition and Qualifications

The Committee shall be comprised of two or more members of the Board, each of whom shall be affirmatively determined by the Board to be “independent” under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange.

Appointment and Removal

The Chairperson and the members of the Committee shall be appointed by the independent directors of the Board on the recommendation of the Committee and shall serve until such member’s successor is duly elected and qualified or until such member’s earlier resignation or removal. The members of the Committee may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the independent directors of the Board.

Chairperson

The Chairperson of the Committee will chair all regular sessions of the Committee and is responsible for setting the agendas for Committee meetings. In the absence of the Chairperson of the Committee, the Committee shall select another member to preside.

Delegation to Subcommittees

The Committee may form subcommittees composed of one or more of its independent members for any purpose that the Committee deems appropriate and may delegate to such subcommittees such power and authority as the Committee deems appropriate.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least two times annually, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. Unless the Committee determines otherwise, the Committee shall hold executive sessions at scheduled meetings on a regular basis. The Chairperson of the Board or any member of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee. The Committee may meet in person, by telephone conference call or by video conference, and may act by unanimous written consent.

All non-management directors that are not members of the Committee may attend meetings of the Committee but may not vote. Additionally, the Committee may invite to its meetings any director, management of the Company and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities.

A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of those present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Committee.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The following functions shall be the common recurring activities of the Committee in carrying out its responsibilities. These functions should serve as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may carry out additional functions and adopt additional policies and procedures as may be required or appropriate in light of business, legislative, regulatory, legal or other conditions or changes. The Committee shall also carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board from time to time. To the extent any stockholders agreement sets forth procedures governing the nomination of directors to the Board, the Committee may act in accordance with the provisions of any such agreement in selecting and nominating directors.

The Committee, in discharging its oversight role, is empowered to study or investigate any matter of interest or concern that the Committee deems appropriate. In this regard, the Committee shall have the authority to retain and terminate outside counsel or other experts, including the authority to approve the fees payable to such counsel or experts and any other terms of retention. The Committee also shall have sole authority to retain and to terminate any search firm to be used to assist it in identifying candidates to serve as members of the Board, including sole authority to approve the fees payable to such search firm and any other terms of retention.

Board Selection, Composition and Evaluation

1. Establish criteria for the selection of new director candidates to serve on the Board.
2. Identify individuals, including both new director candidates and current members of the Board, believed to be qualified to serve as Board members and select, or recommend that the Board select, the director nominees for all directorships to be filled by the Board or by the shareholders at an annual or special meeting of the shareholders. In identifying new director candidates for membership on the Board, the Committee shall take into account all factors it considers appropriate, which may include (a) ensuring that the Board, as a whole, is appropriately diverse, including with regards to age, gender and ethnic and racial background, and consists of individuals with various and relevant career experience; relevant technical skills, industry knowledge and experience; relevant expertise, including with regards to corporate governance, financial and accounting, and executive compensation matters; applicable criteria for committee or Board membership established by regulatory entities; and local or community ties and (b) minimum individual qualifications, including strength of character, mature judgment, familiarity with the Company's business and industry, independence of thought and an ability to work collegially with other members of the Board. The Committee also may consider the extent to which the new director candidate would fill a present need on the Board. In the case of a new director candidate nominated to fill a vacancy on the Board due to an increase in the size of the Board, the Committee will recommend to the Board the class of directors in which the director-nominee should serve.

In reviewing and evaluating whether members of the Board should stand for re-election, the Committee shall take into account all factors it considers appropriate, which may include matters relating to the retirement of members of the Board, including Board tenure and age limits, in accordance with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, as well as the performance of such current members of the Board.

3. Evaluate candidates for nomination to the Board, including those recommended by shareholders on a substantially similar basis as it considers other nominees. In that connection, the Committee shall adopt procedures for the submission of recommendations by shareholders as it deems appropriate.
4. Conduct all necessary and appropriate inquiries into the backgrounds and qualifications of possible new director candidates.
5. Consider questions of independence and possible conflicts of interest of members of the Board and executive officers.
6. Review and make recommendations, as the Committee deems appropriate, regarding the composition, size and combined expertise of the Board in order to ensure the Board has the requisite expertise and its membership consists of persons with sufficiently diverse and independent backgrounds. In fulfilling this function, the Committee should periodically consider the mix of skills and experience that directors bring to the Board to assess whether the Board has the necessary tools to perform its oversight function properly.

7. At least annually, nominate an independent member of the Board and recommend to the Board that the independent members of the Board elect such nominated member to serve as the Lead Director of the Board.
8. Oversee and discuss with management the orientation process for new members of the Board and continuing education programs for current members of the Board.
9. Oversee the evaluation of, at least annually, and as circumstances otherwise dictate, the Board.
10. Review any offer of resignation tendered by a member of the Board in accordance with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and, after considering all relevant facts and circumstances and consulting with the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Chairperson of the Board, decide whether to accept such offer of resignation.

Committee Selection, Composition and Evaluation

11. Recommend members of the Board to serve on the committees of the Board, giving consideration to the criteria for service on each committee as set forth in the charter for such committee, as well as to any other factors the Committee deems relevant, and where appropriate, make recommendations regarding the removal of any member of any committee.
12. Recommend members of the Board to serve as the Chairs of the committees of the Board.
13. Establish, monitor and recommend the purpose, structure and operations of the various committees of the Board, the qualifications and criteria for membership on each committee of the Board and, as circumstances dictate, make any recommendations regarding periodic rotation of directors among the committees and impose any term limitations of service on any committee of the Board.
14. Oversee and periodically review the composition, self-evaluations and charter reviews of each committee of the Board and make recommendations to the Board regarding the creation of additional committees or the elimination of committees of the Board, as conditions dictate.

Corporate Governance

15. Review the adequacy of the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of the Company and recommend to the Board, as conditions dictate, that it propose amendments to the certificate of incorporation and by-laws for consideration by the shareholders.
16. Review on a regular basis and, as may be appropriate, recommend to the Board any proposed amendments to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines. In fulfilling this duty, the Committee shall consider whether the principles and practices have been, and are likely to continue to be, effective in enabling the Board to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee shall also keep abreast of developments with regard to corporate governance and may compare the Company's current practices to the expectations of stockholders; changes in relevant laws or regulations; and the practices of boards of other leading companies.

17. Review policies relating to meetings of the Board. This may include meeting schedules and locations, meeting agendas and procedures for the delivery of materials in advance of meetings.
18. Review and approve directors' and officer's indemnification and insurance matters.
19. Review any shareholder proposals submitted to the Company pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and oversee the Company's response to any such proposals.

Reports

20. Report regularly to the Board including:

- (i) following all meetings of the Committee; and
- (ii) with respect to such other matters as are relevant to the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities.

The Committee shall provide such recommendations to the Board as the Committee may deem appropriate. The report to the Board may take the form of an oral report by the Chairperson or any other member of the Committee designated by the Committee to make such report.

21. Maintain minutes or other records of meetings and activities of the Committee.

V. ANNUAL PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

The Committee shall perform a review and evaluation, at least annually, of the performance of the Committee and its members, including by reviewing the compliance of the Committee with this Charter. In addition, the Committee shall review and reassess, at least annually, the adequacy of this Charter and recommend to the Board any improvements to this Charter that the Committee considers necessary or appropriate. The Committee shall conduct such evaluations and reviews in such manner as it deems appropriate.
