Senior Housing Properties Trust Announces Annual Meeting Results

NEWTON, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Senior Housing Properties Trust (NYSE: SNH) announced the results of its annual meeting held earlier today as follows.

Frederick N. Zeytoonjian was re-elected as an Independent Trustee, receiving 96.9% of all shares voted.

Shareholders approved, with 97.0% of all the shares voted, a nonbinding advisory resolution approving the compensation paid to the Company's named executive officers.

Regarding the proposal required by the Dodd-Frank Law and applicable SEC rules to be presented by shareholders on named executive officers' compensation, the recommendation for such a vote every year received votes of 59.0% of outstanding shares; the recommendation for such a vote every two years received votes of 1.4% of outstanding shares; the recommendation for such a vote every three years received 16.3% of outstanding shares; and the balance of outstanding shares abstained or did not vote.

Shareholders approved, with 99.2% of all shares voted, the ratification of appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as SNH's independent registered public accounting firm.

Senior Housing Properties Trust is a real estate investment trust, or REIT, which owns independent and assisted living communities, nursing homes, rehabilitation hospitals, wellness centers and medical office buildings throughout the United States. SNH is headquartered in Newton, MA.

A Maryland Real Estate Investment Trust with transferable shares of beneficial interest listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

No shareholder, Trustee or officer is personally liable for any act or obligation of the Trust.

Senior Housing Properties Trust
Timothy A. Bonang, 617-796-8234
Vice President, Investor Relations or
Elisabeth A. Heiss, 617-796-8234
Manager, Investor Relations
www.snhreit.com

Source: Senior Housing Properties Trust

News Provided by Acquire Media