CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This presentation may contain “forward-looking statements” made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements regarding ICE’s business that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Although we believe the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, these statements are not guarantees of future results, performance, levels of activity or achievements, and actual results may differ materially from what is expressed or implied in any forward-looking statement. The factors that might affect our performance include, but are not limited to: conditions in global financial markets, domestic and international economic and social conditions, inflation, changes to international policies and tariffs, risk of recession, interest rate changes, political uncertainty and discord, geopolitical events and conflicts (including the conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East) and sanctions laws; global political conditions, introduction of or any changes in domestic and foreign laws, regulations, rules or government policy with respect to financial markets, climate change or our businesses generally, including increased regulatory scrutiny or enforcement actions and our ability to comply with these requirements; volatility in commodity prices and equity prices, and price volatility of financial benchmarks and instruments such as interest rates, credit spreads, equity indices, foreign exchange rates, and mortgage industry trends; impact of climate change and the impact of, and uncertainty related to, the transition to renewable energy, including regulatory and legislative changes; our business environment and industry trends, including trading volumes, prevalence of clearing, demand for data services, mortgage lending and servicing activity, mortgage delinquencies, fees, changing regulations, competition and consolidation; the success of our clearing houses and our ability to minimize the risks associated with operating multiple clearing houses in multiple jurisdictions; our ability to minimize risks related to owning and operating cash equity and options exchanges, the success of our exchanges and clearing houses and their compliance with regulatory and oversight responsibilities; the impacts of computer and communication systems failures and delays, inclusive of the performance and reliability of our trading, clearing, data services and mortgage technologies and those of third-party service providers; the resilience of our electronic platforms and soundness of our business continuity and disaster recovery plans, including in the event of cyberattacks, cyberterrorism or other disruptions; our ability to execute our growth strategy and maintain our growth effectively; our ability to realize the anticipated cost savings, growth opportunities, synergies and other benefits anticipated from our acquisitions, including our acquisition of Black Knight, Inc.; our ability to realize anticipated growth opportunities or expected benefits of our strategic investments, including our majority investment in Bakkt and the additional risk that its evolving business model may pose to our business; requirements to recognize impairments of our goodwill, other intangible assets or investments; our ability to minimize the impacts of an interruption or cessation of an important service, data or content supplied by a third party; our ability to keep pace with technological developments and client preferences, including with regard to our emerging technology initiatives and the use of artificial intelligence in certain of our existing products; our ability to successfully offer new products and technologies and identify opportunities to leverage our risk management capabilities and enhance our technology in a timely and cost-effective manner; our ability to ensure that the technology we utilize is not vulnerable to cyber-attacks, hacking and other cybersecurity risks; our ability to keep information and data relating to the customers of the users of the software and services provided by our ICE Mortgage Technology business confidential; impacts of pandemics or other public health emergencies, on our business as well as on the broader business environment; our ability to identify trends and adjust our business to respond to such trends, especially trends in the U.S. mortgage industry, such as inflation rates, interest rates, new home purchases, refinancing activity, servicing activity, delinquencies and home builder and buyer sentiment; our ability to evolve our benchmarks and indices in a manner that maintains or enhances their reliability and relevance; the accuracy of our estimates and expectations; our belief that cash flows from operations will be sufficient to service our current levels of debt and fund our working capital needs and capital expenditures for the foreseeable future; our ability to secure additional debt and pay off our existing debt in a timely manner; our ability to maintain existing market participants and data and technology customers and attract new ones; our ability to attract, retain and develop key talent, including our senior management; our ability to protect our intellectual property rights, including the costs associated with such protection, and our ability to operate our business without violating the intellectual property rights of others; and potential adverse results of litigation and regulatory actions and proceedings. For a discussion of such risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements, see ICE’s Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) filings, including, but not limited to ICE’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024, as filed with the SEC on February 6, 2025 and ICE’s most recent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2025, as filed with the SEC on May 1, 2025. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which such statement is made, and we undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement or statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statement is made or to reflect the occurrence of an unanticipated event. New factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for management to predict all factors that may affect our business and prospects. Further, management cannot assess the impact of each factor on the business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements.

GAAP AND NON-GAAP RESULTS

This presentation includes non-GAAP measures that exclude certain items we do not consider reflective of our cash operations and core business performance. We believe that the presentation of these non-GAAP measures provides investors with greater transparency and supplemental data relating to our financial condition and results of operations. These adjusted non-GAAP measures should be considered in context with our GAAP results. A reconciliation of Adjusted Net Income Attributable to ICE, Adjusted Earnings Per Share, Adjusted Operating Income, Adjusted Operating Margin, Adjusted Operating Expenses, and Adjusted Free Cash Flow to the equivalent GAAP measure and an explanation of why we deem these non-GAAP measures meaningful appears in our Form 10-Q and in the appendix to this presentation. The reconciliation of Adjusted Non-Operating Income/Expense Reconciliation, Adjusted Effective Tax Rate, and Adjusted Debt-to-EBITDA to the equivalent GAAP results appear in the appendix to this presentation. Our Form 10-Q, earnings press release and this presentation are available in the Investors and Media section of our website at www.ice.com.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Throughout this supplement:

- All net revenue figures represent revenues less transaction-based expenses for periods shown.
