Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals

This Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals applies to the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Chief Accounting Officer of Advanced Disposal Services, Inc. (the “Company”) and to all other professionals of the Company serving in a finance, accounting, corporate treasury, tax or investor relations role.

The purpose of this Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals is to promote honest and ethical conduct and compliance with the law, particularly as related to the maintenance of the Company’s financial books and records and the preparation of its financial statements. The obligations of this Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals supplement, but do not replace, the Company’s Code of Business Conduct. As a finance professional of the Company, you are expected to:

- Engage in and promote ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships, and to disclose to the Audit Committee any material transaction or relationship that reasonably could be expected to give rise to such a conflict.

- Carry out your responsibilities honestly, in good faith and with integrity, due care and diligence, exercising at all times the best independent judgment.

- Assist in the production of full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that the Company and its subsidiaries file with, or submit to, the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulators and in other public communications made by the Company.

- Comply with applicable government laws, rules and regulations of federal, state and local governments and other appropriate regulatory agencies.

- Promptly report (anonymously, if you wish to do so) to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors any violation of this Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals or any other matters that would compromise the integrity of the Company’s financial statements. You may contact the Audit Committee by mail, by phone, or by e-mail; contact information is set forth below. Alternatively, you may report any violation of this Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals to the Legal Department or through the Advanced Disposal compliance hotline by using the contact information provided below.

- Never to take, directly or indirectly, any action to coerce, manipulate, mislead or fraudulently influence the Company’s independent auditors in the performance of their audit or review of the Company’s financial statements.

Compliance with this Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals is a term and condition of your employment. The Company will take all necessary actions to enforce this Code, up to and including immediate dismissal. Violations of this Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals may also constitute violations of law, which may expose both you and the Company to criminal or civil penalties.
If you have any questions about how this Code of Ethics for Finance Professionals should be applied in a particular situation, you should promptly contact the Legal Department.
