Definitions

In this presentation, we have referred to Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Revenues. Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Revenues, as we define are non-GAAP measures. For our definition of Adjusted EBITDA and a reconciliation of consolidated Adjusted EBITDA to EBITDA and a reconciliation of EBITDA to net income (loss) attributable to Hyatt Hotels Corporation, please refer to Part II, Item 7 “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Key Business Metrics Evaluated by Management – Adjusted EBITDA” of our annual report on Form 10-K or the information posted on the Investor Relations page of the Company’s website, which can be accessed at <http://www.hyatt.com> and by selecting the Investor Relations link located at the bottom of the page (or <http://investors.hyatt.com>). Please also see Hyatt’s investor relations website at <http://investors.hyatt.com> under Investor Relations – Financial Information – Non-GAAP Reconciliations for a reconciliation of various non-GAAP measures to their corresponding GAAP measures presented on a quarterly basis.

Effective January 1, 2016, our definition of Adjusted EBITDA has been updated to exclude stock-based compensation expense, to facilitate comparison with our competitors. We have applied this change in the definition of Adjusted EBITDA to historical results to allow for comparability between the periods presented.

Effective January 1, 2018, we made two modifications to our definition of Adjusted EBITDA with the implementation of ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Our definition has been updated to exclude Contra revenue which was previously recognized as amortization expense. As this is strictly a matter of financial presentation, we have excluded Contra revenue in order to be consistent with our prior treatment and to reflect the way in which we manage our business. We have also excluded revenues for the reimbursement of costs incurred on behalf of managed and franchised properties and costs incurred on behalf of managed and franchised properties. These revenues and costs previously netted to zero within Adjusted EBITDA. Under ASU 2014-09, the recognition of certain revenue differs from the recognition of related costs, creating timing differences that would otherwise impact Adjusted EBITDA. We have not changed our management of these revenues or expenses, nor do we consider these timing differences to be reflective of our core operations. These changes reflect how our management evaluates each segment’s performance and also facilitate comparison with our competitors. We have applied this change to 2017 quarterly and year end historical results to allow for comparability between the periods presented. Periods 2016 and prior do not reflect changes related to ASU 2014-09.

Beginning in 2019, all RevPAR percentage changes are in constant dollars. Constant dollar currency, as we define it, is a non-GAAP measure. Prior to 2019, RevPAR percentage changes are on an “as reported” basis and constant currency basis as noted.

For the definition of terms used in this fact book and not defined herein, please see the section titled “DEFINITIONS” of both our most recent earnings release and our earnings release for the relevant fiscal period. All of our earnings releases have been filed on a current report on Form 8-K and can be accessed at the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov or at Hyatt’s investor relations website at <http://investors.hyatt.com>.
