SunCoke Energy, Inc. Issues First Annual Sustainability Report

4/22/2020

LISLE, Ill., April 22, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- SunCoke Energy, Inc. (NYSE: SXC), the largest independent producer of high-quality coke in the Americas, published its first annual Sustainability Report.

SunCoke's inaugural Sustainability Report highlights the company's industry-leading practices that prioritize worker safety and environmental impact.

The company has consistently operated within the top quartiles for the U.S. Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) recordable injury rates as measured and report by the American Coke and Coal Chemical Institute.

SunCoke sets the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Maximum Achievable Control Technology (MACT) standards with its heat-recovery coke-making technology that converts heat generated during the coking process into steam and/or electricity, which is then sold to customers or the grid.

"I am pleased to present SunCoke Energy's first annual Sustainability Report. At its core, this report documents what have been SunCoke's practices for years: a strong commitment to safety and environmental stewardship, signature technology with facilities having best available control technology and constant focus on operational excellence and improvement," said Michael Rippey, Chief Executive Officer.

In future reports, SunCoke will be reporting on its continued emphasis on operational safety and environmental sustainability.
