Tasiast Update

Kinross has continued to engage with the Government of Mauritania since early May following receipt of a letter stating a desire to enter into discussions with respect to Kinross’ activities in the country

• Has been business as usual at the Tasiast mine and the Phase One project, where construction is now complete

• Project financing has continued to progress, with strong interest from multilateral organizations and commercial banks

Phase Two Update

• Kinross has decided to pause the Phase Two project, in line with our commitment to disciplined capital allocation

• To maintain optionality, we are analyzing alternative throughput approaches to expanding Tasiast

• The completion of our evaluation of throughput alternatives, and a decision on the next steps for Phase Two, are subject to the ongoing engagement with the Government. We remain committed to capital discipline as we seek additional clarity on the matter.

West Africa

H1 2018 production and costs in-line with our expectations

Q2 Results Highlights:

• Chirano continues to perform well
  ▪ Strong mining and processing rates
  ▪ Benefits of a more stable supply of energy from national grid

• Tasiast production lower as a result of mill shutdowns to tie-in Phase One infrastructure and slower than expected ramp up of the mining rate
  ▪ Phase One project handed over to Operations team
