Cornerstone’s Adam Miller Named Best CEO in HR Technology by European CEO Magazine

11/14/2018

London – 14 November 2018 – Cornerstone OnDemand (NASDAQ:CSOD), a global leader in cloud-based learning and human capital management (HCM) software, today announced that the company’s Founder and CEO, Adam Miller, has been awarded Best CEO in the HR Technology Industry by European CEO magazine.

The award recognises leaders who have driven innovation in the industry and achieved continued success for their company. Miller impressed the European CEO judging panel with his tireless pursuit to transform cultures and help evolve workforces across the globe as organisations evolve themselves.

Miller founded Cornerstone in 1999, and was one of the first in the industry to identify the appetite for cloud-based and agile software solutions. Today, Cornerstone has a global presence in 192 countries, with 38 million users and a client base of more than 3,400.

Having accumulated nearly two decades of experience in the HR technology industry, Miller is also an active social entrepreneur, helping drive a number of social initiatives including the Cornerstone OnDemand Foundation, which supports non-profit organisations that help people by focusing on education, workforce development and disaster relief.

Comments on the News

“Imagine if every employee in your company were given the opportunity and the means to reach their potential. For Cornerstone, it’s more than a compelling idea—it’s the very foundation of our company,” said Adam Miller, founder and CEO, Cornerstone OnDemand. “I am honoured to receive such a prestigious award from European CEO. This recognition strengthens my motivation to continue to support the success of our clients and inspire others in the industry.”

“It is amazing to work with a leader who thinks globally whilst really understanding what European organisations require. Not only that, Adam captures trends and best practices stemming from Europe and applies them to Cornerstone globally. His drive to help companies succeed is relentless and he is truly worthy of such recognition,” said Vincent Belliveau, executive vice president and general manager EMEA, Cornerstone OnDemand.
