

Audit Committee of the YUM! Brands, Inc. Board of Directors

Complaint Procedures for Accounting and Auditing Matters

Any employee of YUM! Brands, Inc. or one of its restaurant operating companies (collectively, the “Company”) may submit a good faith complaint regarding accounting or auditing matters to the management of the Company without fear of dismissal or retaliation of any kind. The Company is committed to complying with all applicable securities laws and regulations, listing standards, accounting standards, accounting controls and audit practices. The Audit Committee of the YUM! Brands, Inc. Board of Directors (the “Audit Committee”) will oversee treatment of employee concerns in this area.

In order to facilitate the reporting of employee complaints, the Audit Committee has established the following procedures for (1) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters (“Accounting Matters”) and (2) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable Accounting Matters.

Receipt of Employee Complaints

- Employees with concerns regarding Accounting Matters may report their complaints or concerns to the Chief Legal Officer of YUM! Brands, Inc.
- Employees may forward complaints or concerns on a confidential or anonymous basis to the Chief Legal Officer through the Company’s Employee Hotline, e-mail or regular mail as follows:

1441 Gardiner Lane
Louisville, KY 40213

Scope of Matters Covered by These Procedures

These procedures relate to employee complaints or concerns regarding any questionable Accounting Matters, including, without limitation, the following:

- Fraud or error in the preparation, evaluation, review or audit of any financial statement of the Company;
- Fraud or error in the recording and maintaining of financial records of the Company;
- Deficiencies in or noncompliance with the Company's internal accounting controls;
- Misrepresentation or false statement to or by a senior officer or accountant regarding a matter contained in the financial records, financial reports or audit reports of the Company; or
- Deviation from full and fair reporting of the Company's financial condition or performance.

Treatment of Complaints

- Upon receipt of a complaint or concern, the Chief Legal Officer will (i) determine whether the complaint or concern actually pertains to Accounting Matters and (ii) when possible, acknowledge receipt of the complaint or concern to the sender.
- The Chief Legal Officer will promptly report and forward any complaint to the Chair of the Audit Committee that relates, or could reasonably relate, to a material Accounting Matter. All other complaints relating to Accounting Matters shall be reported by the Chief Legal Officer to the Audit Committee on a periodic basis as directed by the Chair of the Audit Committee.
- Complaints relating to Accounting Matters will be reviewed under Audit Committee direction and oversight by the Chief Legal Officer, Internal Audit or such other persons as the Audit Committee determines to be appropriate. Confidentiality will be maintained to the fullest extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate review and subject to requirements of law.
- Prompt and appropriate corrective action will be taken when and as warranted in the judgment of the Audit Committee.
- The Company will not discharge, demote, suspend, threaten, harass or in any manner discriminate against any employee in the terms and conditions of employment based upon any lawful actions of such employee with respect to good faith reporting of complaints or concerns regarding Accounting Matters or otherwise as specified in Section 806 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Reporting and Retention of Complaints and Investigations

The Chief Legal Officer will maintain a log of all complaints or concerns, tracking their receipt, investigation and resolution and shall prepare a periodic summary report thereof for the Audit Committee. Copies of complaints or concerns and such log will be maintained in accordance with the Company's document retention policy.

Application to Individuals Other than Employees

These procedures also apply to the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints or concerns relating to Accounting Matters received from persons other than employees of the Company.
