NEWS RELEASE

NYSE American to Commence Delisting Proceedings Against Catcha Investment Corp (CHAA)

2/20/2024

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- NYSE American LLC (“NYSE American” or the “Exchange”) announced today that the staff of NYSE Regulation has determined to commence proceedings to delist the Class A ordinary shares of Catcha Investment Corp (the “Company”) — ticker symbol CHAA — from NYSE American.

NYSE Regulation reached its decision to delist the Company’s Class A ordinary shares pursuant to Sections 119(b) and 119(f) of the NYSE American Company Guide because the Company failed to consummate a business combination (i) within 36 months of the effectiveness of its initial public offering registration statement, or (ii) such shorter period that the Company specified in its registration statement.

The Company has a right to a review of NYSE Regulation staff’s determination to delist the Class A ordinary shares by the Listings Qualifications Panel of the Committee for Review of the Board of Directors of the Exchange (the “Panel”). Following such appeal and a decision by the Panel, NYSE American or the Company will make an announcement regarding either proceeding with suspension and delisting or continued trading in the Company’s Class A ordinary shares. If the Company does not appeal this determination, NYSE American will announce the date that trading will be suspended. The filing by the Exchange of an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission to delist the Class A ordinary shares is pending completion of all applicable procedures, including any appeal by the Company of the NYSE Regulation staff’s decision.
