NEWS RELEASE

NYSE American to Suspend Trading in Golden Minerals Company (AUMN)

2024-12-13

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- NYSE American LLC (“NYSE American” or the “Exchange”) announced today that the staff of NYSE Regulation has determined to suspend trading in the common stock of Golden Minerals Company (the “Company”) — ticker symbol AUMN — from the Exchange.

The Exchange previously announced on December 6, 2024 that the Company was no longer suitable for listing pursuant to Section 1009(a) of the NYSE American Company Guide (the “Company Guide”) as the Company was unable to demonstrate that it had regained compliance with Sections 1003(a)(i), (ii) and (iii) of the Company Guide by the end of the maximum 18-month compliance plan period, which expired on December 6, 2024. The Company had the right to request a review of this determination by the Listings Qualifications Panel of the Committee for Review of the Board of Directors of the Exchange. On December 13, 2024, the Company confirmed that it will not exercise that right. Accordingly, the NYSE American will now suspend trading in the common stock and will file a delisting application with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
