NYSE to Commence Delisting Proceedings with Respect to Warrants of Butterfly Network, Inc. (BFLY WS)

2026-01-14

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”, the “Exchange”) announced today that the staff of NYSE Regulation has determined to commence proceedings to delist the warrants (“Warrants”) — ticker symbol BFLY WS — each warrant exercisable for one share of Class A common stock at an exercise price of $11.50 with an expiration date of February 12, 2026 of Butterfly Network, Inc. (the “Company”) from the NYSE. The Company issued the Warrants in connection with its business combination with Longview Acquisition Corp. on February 16, 2021. Trading in these Warrants on the NYSE will be suspended immediately. Trading in the Company’s Class A common stock — ticker symbol BFLY — will continue on the NYSE.

NYSE Regulation has determined that the Company’s Warrants are no longer suitable for listing based on “abnormally low selling price” levels, pursuant to Section 802.01D of the Listed Company Manual.

The Company has a right to a review of this determination by a Committee of the Board of Directors of the Exchange. The NYSE will apply to the Securities and Exchange Commission to delist the Company’s Warrants upon completion of all applicable procedures, including any appeal by the Company of the NYSE Regulation staff’s decision.
