NEWS RELEASE

NYSE to Suspend Trading Immediately in Ditech Holding Corporation (DHCP) and Commence Delisting Proceedings

11/6/2018

NEW YORK, November 6, 2018 – The New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE", the "Exchange") announced today that the staff of NYSE Regulation has determined to commence proceedings to delist the common stock of Ditech Holding Corporation (the "Company") -- ticker symbol DHCP -- and Series A Warrants (Expiring February 9, 2028) -- ticker symbol DHCP WS A -- and Series B Warrants (Expiring February 9, 2028) -- ticker symbol DHCP WS B -- from the Exchange. Trading in the Company's securities on the NYSE will be suspended immediately.

NYSE Regulation reached its decision to delist the common stock pursuant to Section 802.01B of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual because the Company had fallen below the NYSE's continued listing standard requiring listed companies to maintain an average global market capitalization over a consecutive 30 trading day period of at least $15,000,000.

The Company has a right to a review of this determination by a Committee of the Board of Directors of the Exchange. The NYSE will apply to the Securities and Exchange Commission to delist the securities upon completion of all applicable procedures, including any appeal by the Company of the NYSE Regulation staff's decision.
