NEWS RELEASE

NYSE to Suspend Trading Immediately in Dominion Resources Black Warrior Trust (DOM) and Commence Delisting Proceedings

1/5/2016

NEW YORK, January 5, 2016 – The New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) announced today that the staff of NYSE Regulation, Inc. has determined to commence proceedings to delist the Trust Units (the “units”) of Dominion Resources Black Warrior Trust (the "Trust") — ticker symbol DOM – from the New York Stock Exchange. Trading in the Trust’s units will be suspended immediately.

On January 4, 2016, the Trust issued a press release announcing their intent to commence termination proceedings as formerly NYSE listed Walter Energy, Inc. did not make scheduled distribution payments by December 31, 2015. NYSE Regulation reached its decision in view of the fact that the Trust no longer can affirm an intent to cure its noncompliance with the NYSE’s continued listing standard in Section 802.01C of the Listed Company Manual that requires an average closing share price of $1.00 over a 30-trading-day period.

The Trust has the right to a review of this determination by a Committee of the Board of Directors of NYSE Regulation. The NYSE will apply to the Securities and Exchange Commission to delist the units upon completion of all applicable procedures, including any appeal by the Trust of the NYSE Regulation staff’s decision.
