INTERCONTINENTAL EXCHANGE ANNOUNCES CLOSING OF EURONEXT INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING

Released : 24 June 2014

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Intercontinental Exchange (NYSE:ICE), the leading global network of exchanges and clearing houses, announced the closing of the initial public offering (IPO) of the ordinary shares of Euronext N.V., the pan-European exchange group. Euronext's ordinary shares are listed under the symbol "ENX" on Euronext Paris, Euronext Amsterdam and Euronext Brussels and commenced trading on June 20, 2014.

ICE, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, sold 42,248,881 ordinary shares of Euronext in the IPO at €20 per share, 23,352,000 ordinary shares of Euronext to a group of European institutional investors that will replace ICE as reference shareholders at €19.20 per share and 188,296 ordinary shares of Euronext to eligible Euronext employees at €16 per share. ICE has granted the underwriters an over-allotment option of up to 4,210,823 ordinary shares of Euronext, which can be exercised for 30 days after the first trade date. Therefore, ICE may continue to hold up to 4,210,823 of the 70,000,000 total issued and outstanding ordinary shares of Euronext if the over-allotment option is not exercised in full. Any shares that are continued to be held by ICE will be subject to a 180-day lockup period. If the over-allotment is exercised in full, the IPO and reference shareholder transaction will represent 100% of the total issued ordinary share capital of Euronext.

Upon the settlement of the IPO transaction, ICE will receive approximately €1.4 billion in cash proceeds, including net cash from Euronext as part of the separation of the business, and excluding the over-allotment option of 4.2 million shares, and net of the share price discounts offered to employees and the reference shareholder group, as well as ICE's estimated transaction fees.

Jeffrey C. Sprecher, Chairman and CEO of Intercontinental Exchange said, "Our goal from the inception of the acquisition of NYSE Euronext was to establish Euronext as an independent exchange via a public listing. The proceeds will enable us to repay debt, invest for growth and return capital to shareholders. We are pleased to have executed on our plan and are now focused on our strategic initiatives, which include further integrating ICE and Liffe, expanding our clearing capabilities and delivering on our synergy targets."

For the second quarter of 2014, ICE expects to include Euronext results in discontinued operations and expects to report operating earnings per share (EPS) excluding discontinued operations. ICE also expects to provide GAAP EPS including discontinued operations.

Forward-Looking Statements

This announcement may include forward-looking statements, which are based on the Company's current expectations and projections about future events and speak only as of the date hereof. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future whether or not outside the control of the Company. Such factors may cause actual results, performance or developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Accordingly, no undue reliance should be placed on any forward-looking statements. The Company operates in a rapidly changing environment. New risks and uncertainties emerge from time to time, and it is not possible to predict all risks and uncertainties, nor to assess the impact that these factors will have on the Company. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward looking statements include, without limitation, the following: (i) risks related to the establishment of the Company as an independent and publicly-traded company; (ii) the Company's dependence on trading volumes; (iii) the impact of current and future legislation and regulatory changes; (iv) the Company's competitive environment; (v) global economic conditions and economic conditions in Europe in particular; (vi) the concentration of the Company's business in Europe; (vii) the Company's ability to keep up with rapid technological change; (viii) the Company's dependence on third parties to provide certain products and services; (ix) the risk of insufficient systems capacity and system failures and the vulnerability of the Company's networks to security risks; (x) failure to protect the Company's intellectual property rights or infringements of those of third parties; (xi) the impact of litigation; and (xii) strategic transactions that the Company undertakes may fail to deliver anticipated benefits. Forward-looking statements speak only as at the date at which they are made and the Company undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements. The proposed IPO of the Company is subject to market conditions and there can be no assurance that the proposed IPO of the Company will be completed. The Company's expectations in relation to dividends and distributable reserves are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, which may be beyond its control.

Each of Intercontinental Exchange, Inc. and Euronext N.V. expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to update, review or revise any forward-looking statements contained in this announcement to reflect any change in its expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which such statements are based unless required to do so by applicable law.
