New York- June 28, 2013- The Achilles Freedom Team of battlefield wounded veterans who participate in various training techniques, will be visiting the Union League Club of New York from June 28 through June 30, 2013. Participants of the event include members of the NYSE Euronext Veteran Associate Program (VAP), a pioneering initiative that provides recent military veterans from across America with valuable business experience in the financial services industry during a ten week engagement at the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE).

The Achilles Freedom Team stresses achievable accomplishment, and allows its members to experience success and build confidence. The Achilles Freedom Team's sole purpose is to coordinate volunteer efforts to improve medical conditions behind Union lines.

"The NYSE encourages relationships with veterans and has shown its dedication to veterans through the Veteran Associate Program. Providing assistance to the war wounded is part of our heritage as an organization," said Tony Sultana, Vice President of Global Real-Estate and Corporate Service.

"I am extremely proud to be a member of the Union League Club of New York which is hosting the Achilles Freedom Team this weekend. I am honored to have the opportunity to give back to those who selflessly served this country giving so much of themselves," said Sal Lifrieri, Vice Chairman of the Admissions Committee.

The weekend's events consist of a meet and greet with NYSE Veteran Associates, a tour of the 9-11 Memorial and Freedom Tower, and will close with the 11th Annual Achilles Hope and Possibility five mile, race on Sunday June 30 in Central Park.

About Achilles Freedom Team:
In 2004, Achilles launched the Freedom Team of Wounded Veterans program. An extension of the Achilles process of physical strengthening, building confidence, and generating a supportive community, the program was adapted to the specific needs of wounded members of the U.S. military. Program participants receive training as well as use of specialized adaptive devices, such as hand-crank wheelchairs.

About The Union League Club of New York:
The Union League Club is a social club providing its members and guests with a quiet sanctuary and relief from the hustle of the city. Founded in 1853 by a group of concerned citizens to help preserve the Union, the Union League Club of New York has built, over ensuing years, a record of distinguished service to our country.
