Senator Gregg has spent over three decades in public office, most recently serving as the United States Senator from the State of New Hampshire for three terms, completing his service in January 2011. Beginning in 2005, he chaired the U.S. Senate Committee on Budget, and in 2008 served on the Congressional Oversight Panel overseeing the implementation of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act. Gregg also was a member of the Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs, the Committee on Appropriations and Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions. Prior to the Senate, he served two terms as Governor of New Hampshire, from 1989 to 1992. He also completed four terms in the U.S. House of Representatives, from 1981 to 1989. Prior to public service, Senator Gregg was an attorney and businessman.

Said Jeffrey C. Sprecher, ICE's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer: "We are pleased to welcome Senator Gregg as a member of the ICE Board of Directors. His deep understanding of financial markets, as well as his extensive public policy and business experience, is extremely valuable as we expand our global marketplace. Our Board and our company will benefit from his leadership and insight."

"I am very pleased to join the IntercontinentalExchange Board and to be a part of a global market leader and a catalyst for transparency," said Senator Gregg. "The company's growth and ability to innovate in delivering vital solutions amid the rapid evolution of market structure make this an exciting time to join ICE, and I look forward to working with my colleagues on the Board."
