

Charter of the Audit Committee Genworth Financial, Inc.

The Audit Committee of the board of directors of Genworth Financial, Inc. shall consist of a minimum of three directors. Members of the committee shall be appointed by the board of directors upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and may be removed by the board of directors in its discretion. All members of the committee shall be independent directors, and shall satisfy the New York Stock Exchange standard for independence for members of the audit committee. Independence of directors shall be determined by the board based on the standards for independence set forth in paragraph 4 of Genworth's Governance Principles, and the more rigorous independence requirements for members of the audit committee set forth in paragraph 7 of Genworth's Governance Principles. All members shall have sufficient financial experience and ability to enable them to discharge their responsibilities and at least one member shall satisfy the Securities and Exchange Commission's criteria for an "audit committee financial expert."

The purpose of the committee shall be to assist the board in its oversight of the integrity of the financial statements of the company, of the company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, of the independence and qualifications of the independent auditor, and of the performance of the company's internal audit function and independent auditors.

In furtherance of this purpose, the committee shall have the following authority and responsibilities:

1. To discuss with management and the independent auditor the annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements, including matters required to be reviewed under applicable legal, regulatory or New York Stock Exchange requirements, including specific disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations".

2. To discuss with management and the independent auditor, as appropriate, earnings press releases and financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and to rating agencies.

3. To select the independent auditor to examine the company's accounts, controls and financial statements. The committee shall have the sole authority and responsibility to appoint, compensate, retain, and oversee the work of any registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the company (including resolution of disagreements between management and the auditor regarding financial reporting). The independent auditor and each such registered public accounting firm will report directly to the committee. The committee shall have the sole authority to approve all audit engagement fees and terms and the committee, or a member of the committee, must preapprove any audit and non-audit service provided to the company by the company's independent auditor.

4. To discuss with management and the independent auditor, as appropriate, any audit problems or difficulties and management's response.

5. To, independently and/or in coordination with the Risk Committee, oversee risks associated with financial accounting and reporting, including the system of internal control, which includes reviewing and discussing with management and the independent auditor the company's risk assessment process and management policies with respect to the company's major financial risk exposures and the procedures utilized by management to identify and mitigate the exposure to such risks.

6. To review the company's financial reporting and accounting standards and principles, significant changes in such standards or principles or in their application and the key accounting decisions affecting the company's financial statements, including alternatives to, and the rationale for, the decisions made.

7. To review and approve the internal audit functions, including: (i) purpose, authority and organizational reporting lines; (ii) annual audit plan, budget and staffing; and (iii) concurrence in the appointment, compensation and rotation of the internal audit leader.

8. To review, with the chief financial officer, the controller, the internal audit leader, or such others as the committee deems appropriate, the company's internal system of audit and financial controls and the results of internal audits, including significant internal audit findings.

9. To obtain and review at least annually a formal written report from the independent auditor delineating: the auditing firm's internal quality-control procedures; any material issues raised within the preceding five years by the auditing firm's internal quality-control reviews, by peer reviews of the firm, or by any governmental or other inquiry or investigation relating to any audit conducted by the firm. The committee will also review steps taken by the auditing firm to address any findings in any of the foregoing reviews. Also, in order to assess auditor independence, the committee will review at least annually all relationships between the independent auditor and the company. After reviewing the foregoing report and the independent auditor's work throughout the year, the Audit Committee will evaluate the auditor's qualifications, performance and independence. This evaluation should include the review and evaluation of the lead partner of the independent auditor. The Audit Committee will report its conclusions with respect to the independent auditor to the board of directors.

10. To prepare and publish an annual committee report in the company's proxy statement.

11. To set policies for the hiring of employees or former employees of the company's independent auditor.

12. To review and investigate any matters pertaining to the integrity of management, including conflicts of interest, or adherence to standards of business conduct as required in the policies of the company. This should include regular reviews of the corporate ombudsperson process. In connection with these reviews, the committee will meet, as deemed appropriate, with the general counsel and other company officers or employees.

13. To establish policies and procedures for the review and approval of all proposed transactions with "Related Persons" (as defined in Section 11(b) of Genworth's Governance Principles).

14. To establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints on accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, as well as for confidential, anonymous submissions by company employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

15. The committee shall meet separately on a periodic basis with management (including with the chief financial officer and the controller), with the internal audit leader and also with the company's independent auditors.

The committee shall have authority to retain such outside counsel, experts and other advisors, as the committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. The committee shall have sole authority to approve related fees and retention terms.

The committee shall report its recommendations to the board after each committee meeting and shall conduct and present to the board an annual performance evaluation of the committee. The committee shall review at least annually the adequacy of this charter and recommend any proposed changes to the board for approval.
