Public Notice of 2018 Dividends Paid Through February 28, 2018 in accordance with IRC §6045B

Dear Shareholder,

LogMeIn, Inc. (“LogMeIn”) paid a dividend on February 28, 2018, to its shareholders of record on February 12, 2018. A dividend can either be taxable as ordinary income or be treated as a return of capital, which reduces the basis of your stock. Based upon our current estimate of earnings and profits for the year ended December 31, 2018, LogMeIn expects that the distribution will be a taxable dividend. The final tax treatment of the distribution will be determined after the end of the fiscal year and if that results in a change to the tax treatment of these dividends reported below, we will update our public notice as necessary.

The tax treatment of LogMeIn’s distribution (dividends vs. return of capital) will be reported to U.S. shareholders on Form 1099-DIV. This form will be mailed to U.S. shareholders in January 2019 for 2018. For U.S. income tax purposes only, LogMeIn’s February 28, 2018 distribution to shareholders is classified under the U.S. Tax Code as follows:

- 100% is taxable as ordinary income pursuant to Section 301(c) and 316(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- LogMeIn paid a total of $15,737,485.50 on 52,458,285 shares of common stock. $0.30 per share should be considered a taxable dividend.

The following table is being provided for informational purposes only and is not a substitute for your 2018 Form 1099-DIV.
