join.me Awarded Frost & Sullivan 2016 Customer Value Leadership Award

4/11/2016

BOSTON, April 11, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- LogMeIn, Inc. (NASDAQ:LOGM) announced today that its popular online meeting and collaboration tool, join.me, has been recognized with the 2016 Customer Value Leadership award for the second year in a row. join.me was also recently named a "market disruptor" in Frost & Sullivan's Analysis of the Global Web Conferencing report.

The Customer Value Leadership award recognizes a company's focus on constant innovation and technology improvements that drive a business advantage and enhance the value that users receive. This is earned by proven dedication to not just responding to changing market conditions and customer demands, but also by helping to drive the overall market forward.

"Customers using join.me like it because it is easy to start, easy to join, and easy to manage. join.me has consistently focused on the core principles of simplicity and usability, while offering rich functionality. As a result, it has successfully disrupted the market and seen strong adoption from millions of users, particularly SMBs," said Roopam Jain, Industry Director - Unified Communications and Collaboration. "join.me is offering a new class of Web conferencing solution which is not only affordable to deploy, but also makes the collaboration experience simple and enjoyable."

Frost & Sullivan's global team of industry analysts compare market participants and measure performance through in-depth interviews, analysis, and extensive primary and secondary research to identify best practices in the industry. Recognized companies are found to consistently deepen customer relationships by offering superior products and services that deliver a clear, demonstrable ROI.

"Our ongoing obsession over the individual user experience has been the key to join.me's viral growth and driving higher levels of productivity across teams and businesses around the world," said Jim Somers, Vice President of Marketing for join.me. “This award helps to validate our dedication to give people the fastest, simplest, and most delightful way to collaborate and share their ideas and we’re thrilled to be recognized by Frost & Sullivan as a ‘Customer Value Leader’ for the second year in a row.”
