The call will be hosted by Arc's Executive Chairman Nick von Schirnding with Chief Operating Officer Vasillios Carellas who will deliver a presentation on the Company's upcoming exploration campaign at its exciting Virgo licence in Botswana as well as updating upon current exploration efforts in Zambia.

Executive Chairman Nick von Schirnding commented:

"Following the completion of Arc's joint venture agreement in Zambia with Anglo American late last year, and the commencement of the Phase 1 US$24 million joint venture drilling campaign led by Anglo American, we look forward to what might be the most exciting year in Arc's history.

"I am also pleased to say that running in parallel to this will be Arc's exploration campaign in Botswana on our Virgo licence in a region which is fast becoming another copper exploration hotspot in Africa; and where we have recently seen significant discoveries and corporate activity on licences near to and indeed, adjacent to our Virgo licence.

The Company is pleased to be able to present an overview of planned activity in Botswana in this presentation next week as well as update upon progress in Zambia."
