CARING FOR PEOPLE

CARING FOR RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS

We're advancing environmental action:

Focusing on climate change and water conservation, waste and circularity, responsible sourcing, and thriving destinations

Committing to set and work toward a 2030 science-based target to significantly reduce our greenhouse gas emissions.

Working toward a 50% global reduction per square meter in food waste sent to landfill or incineration by 2030 compared to a 2019 baseline.

We're elevating wellbeing for guests and colleagues:

Utilizing one of the most comprehensive human trafficking trainings in the industry, mandatory for all global colleagues.

Celebrating Hyatt's first-ever Global Wellbeing Week in 2021 to inspire and advance wellbeing among global colleagues.

Continuing to prioritize the creation of career pathways for Opportunity Youth through our RiseHY program, supporting young adults to help them find employment and grow their careers*.

We're committing to increased accountability and communication around DE&I:

Sharing for the first time detailed workforce diversity data, with a commitment to disclose this information annually.

Linking Hyatt executive compensation to DE&I progress against our priorities and goals.
