Public Storage Announces Mother's Day Video Contest Winner

GLENDALE, California— Just in time to celebrate moms this weekend for Mother's Day, Public Storage (NYSE:PSA) is pleased to announce the winner of its Things She Saved Video Contest.

Thiago—an adventurous dad and Public Storage fan from El Paso, Texas—paid tribute to his mom who taught him to love travel. Thanks to his mom, he spread her admiration for the world and culture to his own kids. Watch the video and prepare for some wanderlust: <https://bit.ly/2KJUqHJ>.

Dozens of entries poured in from Public Storage employees, customers and fans since the company opened up the contest last month. After careful consideration, the company announced three finalists—two Public Storage fans, and an employee— on May 4, 2018 to have their heartfelt Mother's Day videos posted on the company's Public Storage YouTube channel.

According to contest rules, their fates were then in the hands of YouTube viewers. After thousands of views and dozens of comments, Thiago's video won with more than 1,400 views when voting ended at 9 a.m. (PDT) on May 10, 2018.

Watch his video and the other finalists on the Public Storage Things She Saved playlist, and check out other great content from our previous contests, featuring storage-related prank videos and DIY organization tips.
