Section 1. The registered office shall be in the City of Dover, County of Kent, State of Delaware.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. All meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors shall be held in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois, at such place as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors, or at such other place either within or without the State of Delaware, or at no place, solely by means of remote communication in the manner and to the extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. As used in these Amended and Restated Bylaws, any reference to the place of any meeting of stockholders for any purpose shall mean the location of such place, or no place if the meeting is held solely by means of remote communication, as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. Meetings of stockholders for any other purpose may be held at such time and place as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders. In the absence of the chairman, the chief executive officer or other individual designated by the board of directors shall preside. The board of directors shall be entitled to make such rules or regulations for the conduct of meetings of stockholders as it shall deem necessary, appropriate or convenient. Subject to such rules and regulations of the board of directors, if any, the chairman of the meeting shall have the right and authority to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such chairman, are necessary, appropriate or convenient for the proper conduct of the meeting, including, without limitation, establishing an agenda or order of business for the meeting, rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present, limitations on participation in the meeting to stockholders of record of the corporation, their duly authorized and constituted proxies and such other persons as the chairman shall permit, restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof, limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants and regulation of the opening and closing of the polls for balloting and matters which are to be voted on by ballot.

Section 2.

(a) Annual meetings of the stockholders shall be held on the last Friday of May, if not a legal holiday, then on the next secular day preceding at 3:00 p.m., or on such other date and time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which they shall elect the class of the board of directors to be elected, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meetings.

(b) Subject to the requirements of this Section 2(b), the corporation shall include in its proxy statement and on its proxy card for any annual meeting of stockholders the name of any nominee for election to the board of directors who is properly submitted pursuant to this Section 2(b) (each a “Nominee”) provided that (i) timely written notice of such Nominee satisfying this Section 2(b) (“Nomination Notice”) is delivered to the corporation by or on behalf of a stockholder or group of stockholders who, at the time the Nomination Notice is delivered, satisfy the ownership and other requirements of this Section 2(b) (such stockholder or stockholders, the “Eligible Stockholder”), (ii) the Eligible Stockholder expressly elects in writing at the time of providing the Nomination Notice to have its nominee included in the corporation’s proxy materials pursuant to this Section 2(b), and (iii) the Eligible Stockholder and the Nominee otherwise satisfy each of the requirements of this Section 2(b).

(i) To be timely, an Eligible Stockholder’s Nomination Notice must have been delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation not less than 120 days nor more than 150 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of the proxy statement for the corporation’s immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders. In no event shall the adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting, or the public disclosure thereof, commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a Nomination Notice.

(ii) In addition to including the name of the Nominee in the corporation’s proxy materials for the annual meeting, the corporation also shall include (A) the information concerning the Nominee and the Eligible Stockholder that is required to be disclosed in the corporation’s proxy statement pursuant to Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and (B) at the option of the Eligible Shareholder, a Statement (defined below) (collectively, the “Required Information”). Nothing in this Section 2(b) shall limit the corporation’s ability to solicit against and include in its proxy statement its own statements relating to any Nominee.

(iii) The maximum number of Nominees that may be included in the corporation’s proxy materials pursuant to this Section 2(b) shall not exceed 20% of the number of directors in office as of the last day on which a Nomination Notice may be delivered pursuant to this Section 2(b), rounded down to the nearest whole number but not less than two (the “Permitted Number”). The Permitted Number shall be reduced by (1) any nominee who was submitted by an Eligible Stockholder for inclusion pursuant to this Section 2(b) but who is either subsequently withdrawn following nomination hereunder or nominated by the board of directors for inclusion as a director nominee in the corporation’s proxy materials; (2) incumbent directors who were Nominees at any of the preceding two annual meetings of stockholders and whose reelection at the upcoming annual meeting is being recommended by the board of directors; or

(3) incumbent directors or director candidates (including, without limitation, candidates who are not Nominees) who in either case will be included in the corporation's proxy materials with respect to such annual meeting as unopposed (by the corporation) nominees pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or other understanding with any stockholder or group of stockholders (other than any such agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with an acquisition of capital stock, by the stockholder or group of stockholders, from the corporation). In the event that one or more vacancies for any reason occurs on the board of directors after the nomination deadline but prior to the date of the annual meeting of stockholders, and the board of directors resolves to reduce the size of the board of directors in connection therewith, the Permitted Number shall be calculated based on the number of directors in office as so reduced. In the event that the number of Nominees submitted by Eligible Stockholders pursuant to this Section 2(b) exceeds the Permitted Number, each Eligible Stockholder shall select one Nominee for inclusion in the corporation's proxy materials until the Permitted Number is reached, going in order of the amount (greatest to least) of voting power of the corporation's capital stock entitled to vote on the election of directors as disclosed in the Nomination Notice.

(iv) An Eligible Stockholder must have owned (as defined below) continuously for at least 3 years a number of shares that represents 3% or more of the total voting power of the corporation's outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote in the election of directors as of the most recent date for which such amount is given in any filing by the corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission prior to the submission of the Nomination Notice (the "Required Shares") as of both the date the Nomination Notice is timely delivered to or received by the corporation and the record date for determining stockholders entitled to vote at the annual meeting and must continue to own the Required Shares through the date of the annual meeting. For purposes of satisfying the ownership requirement under this Section 2(b), the voting power represented by the shares of the corporation's capital stock owned by one or more stockholders, or by the person or persons who own shares of the corporation's capital stock and on whose behalf any stockholder is acting, may be aggregated, provided that the number of stockholders and other persons whose ownership of shares is aggregated for such purpose shall not exceed 20. If two or more funds are (A) under common management and investment control; (B) under common management and funded primarily by the same employer (or by a group of related employers that are under common control); or (C) a "group of investment companies," as such term is defined in Section 12(d)(1)(G)(ii) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, they shall be treated as one stockholder or person for the purpose of determining the aggregate number of stockholders. With respect to any one annual meeting of stockholders, no person may be a member of more than one group of persons constituting an Eligible Stockholder under this Section 2(b).

(v) For purposes of this Section 2(b), an Eligible Stockholder shall be deemed to "own" only those outstanding shares of the corporation's capital stock as to which the person possesses both (A) the full voting and investment rights pertaining to the shares; and (B) the full economic interest in (including the opportunity for profit and risk of loss on) such shares; provided that the number of shares calculated in accordance with clauses (A) and (B) shall not include any shares (1) sold by such person or any of its affiliates in any transaction that has not been settled or closed, (2) borrowed by such person or any of its affiliates for any purposes or purchased by such person or any of its affiliates pursuant to an agreement to resell, or (3) subject to any option, warrant, forward contract, swap, contract of sale, other derivative or similar agreement entered into by such person or any of its affiliates, in any such case which instrument or agreement has, or is intended to have, the purpose or effect of (a) reducing in any manner, to any extent or at any time in the future, such person's or affiliates' full right to vote or direct the voting of any such shares and/or (b) hedging, offsetting or altering to any degree gain or loss arising from the full economic ownership of such shares by such person or affiliate. A person shall "own" shares held in the name of a nominee or other intermediary so long as the person retains the right to instruct how the shares are voted with respect to the election of directors and possesses the full economic interest in the shares. A person's ownership of shares shall be deemed to continue during any period in which the person has (A) loaned such shares, provided that such person has the power to recall such shares on no more than 5 business days' notice and recalls such loaned shares within 5 business days of being notified that its Nominee will be included in the corporation's proxy materials for the relevant annual meeting of stockholders; or (B) delegated any voting power over such shares by means of a proxy, power of attorney or other instrument or arrangement that is revocable at any time by the person. For purposes of this Section 2(b), the term "affiliate" shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the regulations promulgated under the Exchange Act.

(vi) An Eligible Stockholder must provide with its Nomination Notice the following information in writing to the Secretary of the corporation: (A) sufficient verification that, as of a date within 7 calendar days prior to the date the Nomination Notice is delivered to or received by the corporation, the Eligible Stockholder owns, and has owned continuously for the preceding 3 years, the Required Shares, and the Eligible Stockholder's agreement to provide (1) within 5 business days after (x) the record date for the meeting (if, prior to the record date, the corporation (I) has made a public announcement of such record date or (II) delivered a written notice of the record date (including by electronic mail) to the Eligible Stockholder), or (y) the date on which the corporation delivered to the Eligible Stockholder written notice (including by electronic mail) of the record date (if such notice is provided after the record date), written statements from the record holder and any intermediaries verifying the Eligible Stockholder's continuous ownership of the Required Shares through the record date, and (2) immediate notice if the Eligible Stockholder ceases to own any of the Required Shares prior to the date of the annual meeting; (B) documentation satisfactory to the corporation demonstrating that a group of funds are entitled to be treated as one stockholder or person for purposes of this Section 2(b); (C) a representation that the Eligible Stockholder (including each member of any group of stockholders that together is an Eligible Stockholder hereunder): (1) intends to continue to own the Required Shares through the date of the annual meeting, (2) acquired the Required Shares in the ordinary course of business and not with the intent to change or influence control of the corporation, and does not presently have such intent, (3) has not nominated and will not nominate for election to the board of directors at the meeting any person other than the Nominee(s) being nominated pursuant to this Section 2(b), (4) has not engaged and will not engage in, and has not and will not be, a "participant" in another person's "solicitation" within the meaning of Rule 14a-1(l) under the Exchange Act in support of the election of any individual as a director at the annual meeting other than its Nominee(s) or a nominee of the board of directors, (5) will not distribute to any stockholder any form of proxy for the annual meeting other than the form distributed by the corporation, and (6) has provided and will provide facts, statements and other information in all communications with the corporation and its stockholders that are or will be true and correct in all material respects and do not and will not omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; (D) the written consent of each Nominee to be named in the corporation's proxy statement as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected; (E) a copy of the Schedule 14N that has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") as required by Rule 14a-18 under the Exchange Act; (F) in the case of a nomination by a group of stockholders that together is an Eligible Stockholder, the designation by all group members of one group member that is authorized to act on behalf of all members of the nominating stockholder group with respect to the nomination and matters related thereto, including withdrawal of the nomination; and (G) an undertaking that the Eligible Stockholder agrees to: (1) assume all liability stemming from any legal or regulatory violation arising out of the Eligible Stockholder's communications with the corporation's stockholders or out of the information that the Eligible Stockholder provides to the corporation, (2) indemnify and hold harmless the corporation and each of its directors, or its officers and employees individually against any liability, loss or damages in connection with any threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding, whether legal, administrative or investigative, against the corporation or any of its directors, or its officers or employees arising out of any nomination submitted by the Eligible Stockholder pursuant to this Section 2(b), and (3) comply with all other applicable laws, rules, regulations and listing standards with respect to any solicitation in connection with the meeting.

(vii) The Eligible Stockholder may with its Nomination Notice provide to the Secretary of the corporation, a written statement for inclusion in the corporation's proxy statement for the annual meeting, not to exceed 500 words per Nominee, in support of each Nominee it names in its Nomination Notice (the "Statement"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2(b), the corporation may omit from its proxy statement any information or Statement that it believes would violate any applicable law, rule, regulation, or listing standard.

(viii) Within the time period specified in Section 2(b)(i), a Nominee must deliver to the Secretary of the corporation a written representation and agreement that the Nominee: (A) has read and agrees to adhere to the corporation's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, corporate governance guidelines, conflict of interest, confidentiality and stock ownership and securities trading policies, and any other publicly disclosed policies and guidelines applicable to directors, as well as any applicable law, rule or regulation or listing requirement; (B) is not and will not become a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding with, and has not given any commitment or assurance to, any person or entity as to how such person, if elected as a director of the corporation, will act or vote on any issue or question that has not been disclosed to the corporation (a "Voting Commitment"); (C) is not and will not become a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any person or entity other than the corporation with respect to any direct or indirect compensation, reimbursement or indemnification (a "Compensation Arrangement") in connection with such person's nomination for director and/or service as a director, in each case that has not been disclosed to the corporation. At the request of the corporation, the Nominee must (A) complete, sign and submit all questionnaires required of the board of directors within 10 business days of receipt of each such questionnaire from the corporation; and (B) provide within 5 business days of the corporation's request such additional information as the corporation determines may be necessary to permit the board of directors to determine whether such Nominee meets the requirements of this Section 2(b) and/or the corporation's requirements with regard to qualifications and policies and guidelines applicable to members of the board of directors, including as required by paragraph (x) below.

(ix) In the event that any information or communications provided by the Eligible Stockholder or Nominee to the corporation or its stockholders ceases to be true and correct in any respect or omits a fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, each Eligible Stockholder or Nominee, as the case may be, shall promptly notify the Secretary of the corporation of any such inaccuracy or omission in such previously provided information and of the information that is required to make such information or communication true and correct.

(x) The corporation shall not be required to include pursuant to this Section 2(b), any Nominee in its proxy statement (or, if the proxy statement has already been filed, to allow the nomination of a Nominee, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the corporation) if (A) the Eligible Stockholder has or is engaged in, or has been or is a “participant” in another person’s, “solicitation” within the meaning of Rule 14a-1(l) under the Exchange Act in support of the election of any individual as a director at the annual meeting other than its Nominee(s) or any other nominee, (B) the Nominee is determined by the board of directors not to be independent under the listing standards of each principal US exchange upon which the capital stock of the corporation is listed and any applicable rules of the SEC, (C) the Nominee’s election as a director would cause the corporation to be in violation of these By-laws, the corporation’s restated certificate of incorporation, the corporation’s Corporate Governance Guidelines or any other publicly disclosed document setting forth qualifications for members of the board of directors, the listing standards of the principal exchange upon which the corporation’s capital stock is traded, or any applicable state or federal law, rule or regulation, (D) the Nominee is or becomes a party to any undisclosed Voting Commitment or Compensation Arrangement, (E) the Nominee is or has been, within the past 3 years, an officer or director of a competitor, as defined in Section 8 of the Clayton Antitrust Act of 1914, (F) the Nominee’s then-current or within the preceding ten years’ business or personal interests creates a conflict of interest with the corporation or any of its subsidiaries that would cause such Nominee to violate any fiduciary duties of directors established pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware, including but not limited to the duty of loyalty and duty of care; where any such determination on this matter shall be made in good faith by the board of directors following receipt of written advice from Delaware counsel jointly chosen by the corporation and the Eligible Stockholder, with a copy of such advice being concurrently provided to the Eligible Stockholder, (G) the Nominee is subject to any event specified in Item 401(f) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), (H) the Nominee is subject to any order of the type specified in Rule 506(d) of Regulation D under the Securities Act, or (I) the Nominee or the applicable Eligible Stockholder shall have provided information to the corporation in respect of such nomination that was untrue in any material respect or omitted to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading or shall have breached its or their agreements, representations, undertakings, and/or obligations pursuant to this Section 2(b).

(xi) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, if (A) the Nominee and/or the applicable Eligible Stockholder shall have breached its or their agreements, representations, undertakings and/or obligations pursuant to this Section 2(b), as determined by the board of directors; or (B) the Eligible Stockholder (or a qualified representative thereof) does not appear at the meeting to present any nomination pursuant to this Section 2(b), (x) the board of directors shall be entitled to declare a nomination by an Eligible Stockholder to be invalid, and such nomination shall be disregarded notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the corporation and (y) the corporation 12/39 shall not be required to include in its proxy materials any successor or replacement nominee proposed by the applicable Eligible Stockholder or any other Eligible Stockholder.

(xii) (xii) Any Nominee who is included in the corporation's proxy materials for a particular annual meeting of stockholders but: (A) withdraws from or becomes ineligible or unavailable for election at the annual meeting; or (B) does not receive at least 25% of votes cast in favor of his or her election, shall, in each case, be ineligible to be included in the corporation's proxy materials as a Nominee pursuant to this Section 2(b) for the next two annual meetings of stockholders.

Section 3. Written notice of the annual meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting.

Section 4. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of the corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder for any purpose germane to the meeting for a period of at least ten days prior to the meeting: (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of the meeting, or (ii) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the corporation. In the event that the corporation determines to make the list available on an electronic network, the corporation may take reasonable steps to ensure that such information is available only to stockholders of the corporation. If the meeting is to be held at a location, then a list of stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting shall be produced and kept at the time and location of the meeting during the whole time thereof and may be examined by any stockholder who is present. If the meeting is to be held solely by means of remote communication, then such list shall also be open to the examination of any stockholder during the whole time of the meeting on a reasonably accessible electronic network, and the information required to access such list shall be provided with the notice of the meeting.

Section 5. Special meetings of the stockholders, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the certificate of incorporation, may be called by the chief executive officer and shall be called by the chief executive officer or secretary at the request in writing of a majority of the board of directors, or at the request in writing of stockholders owning a majority in amount of the entire capital stock of the corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

Section 6. Written notice of a special meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 7. Business transacted at any special meeting of stockholders shall be limited to the purposes stated in the notice.

Section 8. The holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business except as otherwise provided by statute or by the certificate of incorporation. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. The chairman of the meeting or the chairman of the board shall have the power to adjourn any meeting of the stockholders from time to time for any reasonable purpose without notice other than announcement at the meeting, whether or not there is a quorum. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. If the adjournment is for more than thirty days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. For the avoidance of doubt, any previously scheduled meeting of the stockholders may be rescheduled or postponed, and (unless the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides) any special meeting of the stockholders may be rescheduled, postponed or cancelled, by resolution of the board of directors upon public notice given prior to the date previously scheduled for such meeting of stockholders.

Section 9. When a quorum is present at any meeting, the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which by express provision of the statutes or of the certificate of incorporation, a different vote is required in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question.

Section 10. Each stockholder shall at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each share of the capital stock having voting power held by such stockholder, but no proxy shall be voted on after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

Section 11. Whenever the vote of stockholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, by any provision of the statutes, the meeting and vote of stockholders may be dispensed with if all of the stockholders who have been entitled to vote upon the action if such meeting were held shall consent in writing to such corporate action being taken, or if the certificate of incorporation authorized the action to be taken with the written consent of the holders of less than all of the stock who would have been entitled to vote upon the action if a meeting were held, then on the written consent of the stockholders having not less than such percentage of the number of votes as may be authorized in the certificate of incorporation; provided that in no case shall the written consent be by the holders of stock having less than the minimum percentage of the vote required by statute for the proposed corporate action, and provided that prompt notice must be given to all stockholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent.

Section 12. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors, and which date shall not be more than ten (10) days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors. Any stockholder of record seeking to have the stockholders authorize or take corporate action by written consent shall, by written notice to the Secretary, request the board of directors to fix a record date. The board of directors shall promptly, but in all events within ten (10) days after the date on which such a request is received, adopt a resolution fixing the record date (unless a record date has previously been fixed by the board of directors pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 12). If no record date has been fixed by the board of directors pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 12 or otherwise within ten (10) days of the date on which such a request is received, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the board of directors is required by applicable law, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in Delaware, its principal place of business, or to any officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. If no record date has been fixed by the board of directors and prior action by the board of directors is required by applicable law, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting shall be at the close of business on the date on which the board of directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

Section 13. In the event of the delivery, in the manner provided by Section 12, to the corporation of the requisite written consent or consents to take corporate action and/or any related revocation or revocations, the corporation shall engage independent inspectors of elections for the purpose of performing promptly a ministerial review of the validity of the consents and revocations. For the purpose of permitting the inspectors to perform such review, no action by written consent without a meeting shall be effective until such date as the independent inspectors certify to the corporation that the consents delivered to the corporation in accordance with Section 12 represent at least a minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take the corporate action. Nothing contained in this Section 13 shall in any way be construed to suggest or imply that the board of directors or any stockholder shall not be entitled to contest the validity of any consent or revocation thereof, whether before or after such certification by the independent inspectors, or to take any other action (including, without limitation, the commencement, prosecution, or defense of any litigation with respect thereto, and the seeking of injunctive relief in such litigation).

Section 14. Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent and no written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within sixty (60) days of the earliest dated written consent received in accordance with Section 12, a written consent or consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take such action are delivered to the corporation in the manner prescribed in Section 12.

Section 15.

(a) Without qualification or limitation, subject to paragraph (c)(iv) of this Section 15, for any nominations or any other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof (including, in the case of nominations, the completed and signed questionnaire, representation and agreement required by Section 16 of these By-laws), and timely updates and supplements thereof, in writing to the Secretary, and such other business must otherwise be a proper matter for stockholder action.

In addition to such stockholder complying with the provisions of Rule 14a-19 of the Exchange Act (and all other applicable provisions of state or federal law, rule or regulation), to be timely, a stockholder's notice must have been delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation by 5:00 p.m. Central time not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder must be so delivered to or mailed and received by 5:00 p.m. Central time not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the date of such annual meeting or, if the first public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is less than 100 days prior to the date of such annual meeting, not more than 10 days following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the corporation. In no event shall any adjournment of an annual meeting, or the 18/39 public announcement thereof, commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above.

Notwithstanding anything in the immediately preceding paragraph to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the board of directors is increased by the board of directors, and there is no public announcement by the corporation naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased board of directors at least 100 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice required by this Section 15(a) shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation by 5:00 p.m. Central time not later than 10 days following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the corporation.

In addition, to be considered timely, a stockholder's notice shall further be updated and supplemented, if necessary, so that the information provided or required to be provided in such notice shall be true and correct as of the record date for the meeting and as of the date that is 10 business days prior to the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, and such update and supplement shall be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation not later than five business days after the record date for the meeting in the case of the update and supplement required to be made as of the record date, and not later than 8 business days prior to the date for the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof in the case of the update and supplement required to be made as of 10 business days prior to the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, the obligation to update and supplement as set forth in this paragraph or any other section of these By-laws shall not limit the corporation's rights with respect to any deficiencies in any notice provided by a stockholder, extend any applicable deadlines hereunder or enable or be deemed to permit a stockholder who has previously submitted notice hereunder or under any other provision of the By-laws to amend or update any proposal or to submit any new proposal, including by changing or adding nominees, matters, business and or resolutions proposed to be brought before a meeting of the stockholders.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c)(iv) of this Section 15, in the event the corporation calls a special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the board of directors, any stockholder may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position(s) as specified in the corporation's notice of meeting, provided that the stockholder gives timely notice thereof (including the completed and signed questionnaire, representation and agreement required by Section 16 of these By-laws), and timely updates and supplements thereof in each case in proper form, in writing, to the Secretary.

To be timely for purposes of this paragraph (b), a stockholder's notice must have been delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation by 5:00 p.m. Central time not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the date of such special meeting or, if the first public announcement of the date of such special meeting is less than 100 days prior to the date of such special meeting, not more than 10 days following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and, if applicable, of the nominees proposed by the board of directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall any adjournment of a special meeting of stockholders, or the public announcement thereof, commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above.

DIRECTORS

Section 1. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole board shall be at least nine (9) but no more than fifteen (15), with such number to be fixed from time to time exclusively pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the whole board. The directors shall be classified with respect to the time for which they shall severally hold office by dividing them as equally as the total number of directors will permit into three classes, and all directors shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. The directors of class one shall be elected for a term expiring at the first annual meeting, the directors of class two for a term expiring at the second annual meeting, and the directors of class three for a term expiring at the third annual meeting. At each annual meeting the successors to the class of directors whose terms then expire shall be elected to hold office for a term of three years, so that the term of office of one class of directors shall expire in each year.

Section 2. Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors shall be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and the directors so chosen shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the class to which they were appointed and until their successors are duly elected and shall qualify, unless sooner displaced. If there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in the manner provided by statute. If, at the time of filling any vacancy or any newly created directorship, the directors then in office shall constitute less than a majority of the whole board (as constituted immediately prior to any such increase), the Court of Chancery may, upon application of any stockholder or stockholders holding at least ten percent of the total number of the shares at the time outstanding having the right to vote for such directors, summarily order an election to be held to fill any such vacancies or newly created directorships, or to replace the directors chosen by directors then in office.

Section 3. The business of the corporation shall be managed under the direction of its board of directors which may exercise all such powers of the corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the certificate of incorporation or by these By-laws directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. The board of directors shall annually elect one of its members to be chairman of the board and shall fill any vacancy in the position of chairman of the board with a director at such time and in such manner as the board of directors shall determine. The chairman may be, but need not be, an officer or employee of the corporation. The chairman may be removed from that position at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors. If the chairman of the board is not an Independent Director, a lead independent director shall be elected annually by and from the Independent Directors, with such responsibilities as the board of directors may provide from time to time. For purposes of these By-laws, the term "Independent Director" shall mean a person who, at the time of his or her election or re-election, satisfies the independence criteria set forth in Rule 303A.02(b) of the New York Stock Exchange's Listed Company Manual (or any successor provision).

Section 7. The chairman of the board shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors. In the absence of the chairman, the lead independent director and in his/her absence the chief executive officer shall preside at meetings of the board of directors.

If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the board of directors the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcements at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 9. Unless otherwise restricted by the certificate of incorporation or these By-laws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the board or committee as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceeding of the board or committee

The board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution, shall have and may exercise the powers of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it; provided, however, that in the absence or disqualification of any member of such committee or committees, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he/she or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the board of directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the board of directors.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Section 11. The directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the board of directors and may be paid a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the board of directors or a stated salary as director. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor. AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These By-laws may be altered, amended or repealed or new By-laws may be adopted by the board of directors, when such power is conferred upon the board of directors by the certificate of incorporation, at any regular meeting of the board of directors or at any special meeting of the board of directors if notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new By-laws be contained in the notice of such special meeting of the directors. These By-laws may be altered, amended or repealed or new By-laws may be adopted by stockholders of the corporation at any regular meeting of the stockholders; provided, however, that in addition to any separate class vote, if any, which may be required by law, the affirmative vote of the holders of 66% of the outstanding shares of all classes of stock of the corporation entitled to vote in the election of directors, such outstanding shares of stock to be considered as one class, shall be required in order to alter, amend, or repeal any of the provisions of these By-laws.

ARTICLE IX

EXCLUSIVE FORUM

Section 1. Unless the corporation consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or, if such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction thereof, the federal district court of the State of Delaware) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the corporation, (ii) any action asserting a claim for or based on a breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any current or former director, officer, employee, agent or stockholder of the corporation to the corporation or the corporation's stockholders, including a claim alleging the aiding and abetting of such a breach of fiduciary duty, (iii) any action asserting a claim against the corporation or any current or former director, officer, employee, agent or stockholder of the corporation arising pursuant to any provision of the Delaware General Corporation Law or the corporation's Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws (as either may be amended from time to time), or (iv) any action asserting a claim against the corporation or any current or former director, officer, employee, agent or stockholder of the corporation governed by the internal affairs doctrine. If any action the subject matter of which is within the scope of the preceding sentence is filed in a court other than the Court of Chancery (or, if the Court of Chancery does not have jurisdiction, the federal district court of the State of Delaware) (a "foreign action") in the name of any stockholder (including any current or former beneficial owner), such stockholder shall be deemed to have consented to (i) the personal jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery (or the federal district court of the State of Delaware, as applicable) in connection with any action brought in any such court to enforce the preceding sentence and (ii) having service of process made upon such stockholder in any such action by service upon such stockholder's counsel in the foreign action as agent for such stockholder. Failure to enforce the foregoing provisions would cause the corporation irreparable harm, and the corporation shall be entitled to equitable relief, including injunctive relief and specific performance, to enforce the foregoing provisions. Unless the corporation consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the federal district courts of the United States of America shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be the sole and exclusive forum for the resolution of any complaint asserting a cause of action arising under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.
