

Quest Diagnostics Completes Acquisition of Clinical Diagnostic Services, Inc.

December 3, 2001

TETERBORO, N.J., Dec 3, 2001 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- Quest Diagnostics Incorporated (NYSE: DGX), the nation's leading provider of diagnostic testing, information and services, announced today that it had completed the previously announced acquisition of Clinical Diagnostic Services, Inc. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed. CDS is based in Englewood, N.J., and operates a diagnostic testing laboratory and more than 50 patient service centers in New York and New Jersey.

"Bringing together two of the most respected diagnostic testing laboratories in the New York City metropolitan area will enable us to offer patients, doctors and hospitals the highest service levels available," said Kenneth W. Freeman, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Quest Diagnostics.

Quest Diagnostics expects the transaction to produce a broad range of benefits for customers, including: greater convenience and access to laboratory services; superior levels of customer service; and expanded access to esoteric and gene-based testing at Quest Diagnostics' Teterboro laboratory and its Nichols Institute specialty testing laboratory in Southern California.

Quest Diagnostics is the nation's leading provider of diagnostic testing, information and services with $3.4 billion in annual revenues. The company's diagnostic testing yields information that enables health care professionals and consumers to make better decisions to improve health. Quest Diagnostics offers patients and physicians the broadest access to diagnostic testing services through its national network of approximately 30 full-service laboratories, 150 rapid response laboratories and more than 1,300 patient service centers, where specimens are collected. Quest Diagnostics is the leading provider of esoteric testing, including gene-based testing, and is the leader in routine medical testing, drugs of abuse testing, and non-hospital-based anatomic pathology testing. Quest Diagnostics empowers health care organizations and clinicians with state-of-the-art connectivity solutions that improve practice management. Through partnerships with pharmaceutical, biotechnology and information technology companies, Quest Diagnostics provides support to help speed the development of health care insights and new therapeutics.
