

Quest Diagnostics Presents Supplier Excellence Awards to Five Partners

April 6, 2017

MADISON, N.J., April 6, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Quest Diagnostics (NYSE: DGX), the world's leading provider of diagnostic information services, today awarded Supplier Excellence Awards to five companies at its 2017 Supplier Forum.

Supplier Excellence awards recognize world class products, systems, or services that provide consistent and reliable performance; companies that develop and implement novel solutions to move the business forward; individuals who step up to the challenge and excel in creating a proactive partnership; and organizations that drive positive change in the market.

Five companies were recognized for their contributions to Quest while displaying behavior consistent with the company's values of Quality, Integrity, Innovation, Accountability, Collaboration and Leadership. The awards were given during a meeting which brought together senior executives from over forty key suppliers.

"Driving operational excellence is a foundational element of our two-point strategy in addition to accelerating growth, and we look to our partners to help us enhance the customer experience and drive efficiencies," said Jim Davis, Executive Vice President, General Diagnostics. "The contributions of our suppliers and partners enable us to deliver on the promise of empowering better health with diagnostic insights."

The 2017 Quest Diagnostics Supplier Excellence Awards recipients are:

- Inpeco - operates worldwide, providing best in class comprehensive automation and traceability solutions for clinical laboratories. Based in Lugano, Switzerland.
- Tata Consultancy Services –delivers strong capabilities in enterprise technology transformation services while applying business intelligence to catalyze change and deliver results. Based in New York, NY.
