"Quest Diagnostics is committed to empowering better health with diagnostic insights and our continued inclusion on the Dow Jones Sustainability Indices demonstrates our enduring pledge to do so with respect and care for our colleagues, our customers, our communities and the environment," said Steve Rusckowski, president and chief executive officer of Quest Diagnostics.

Launched in 1999, the DJSI are the first global indices tracking the financial performance of the leading sustainability-driven companies worldwide. The DJSI enable investors to integrate sustainability considerations into their portfolios while providing an effective engagement platform for encouraging companies to adopt sustainable best practices. Companies are named to the DJSI based on the results of the Corporate Sustainability Assessment. This annual questionnaire provides an in-depth analysis of economic, environmental and social criteria, such as corporate governance, water-related risks and stakeholder relations, with a special focus on industry-specific risks and opportunities.
