

CHARTER OF
THE SUSTAINABILITY COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF CRESTWOOD EQUITY GP LLC

Crestwood Equity GP LLC (the “Company”) is a Delaware limited liability company and is also the general partner of Crestwood Equity Partners LP, a Delaware limited partnership (the “Partnership”). The Company is governed by the First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement dated as of September 27, 2012 (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the “LLC Agreement”). The Partnership is governed by the Fifth Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership dated as of (as amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the “MLP Agreement”).

I. PURPOSE

The Sustainability Committee (the “Committee”) is appointed by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) to assist the Board to (i) review significant policies and performance and provide guidance on matters relating to sustainability, which includes, but is not limited to, the company’s environmental risks and opportunities, social responsibility and impacts, employee, contractor and community health and safety, and activities related to stakeholder engagement and community investment; (ii) oversee and monitor the company’s vision and values; (iii) advise the Board and management on significant public issues that are pertinent to the company and its stakeholders, (iv) assist management in setting strategy, establishing goals and integrating sustainability into strategic and tactical business activities across the company to create long-term unitholder value, and (v) review and recommend to the Board for approval any sustainability reporting to the public or governmental agencies.

II. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be comprised of two or more members (including a Chairperson). The members of the Committee and the Chairperson shall be selected annually by the Board and serve at the pleasure of the Board. A Committee member (including the Chairperson) may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Board. The Committee has the authority to retain independent outside professional advisors or resources as it deems advisable or necessary, including the sole authority to retain and terminate any such advisors or experts, to carry out its duties. The Committee shall have sole authority to approve all reasonable related fees and retention terms.

III. MEETINGS AND OPERATIONS

The Committee shall meet as often as necessary, but at least once each year, to enable it to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee shall meet at the call of its Chairperson. The Committee may meet by telephone conference call or by any other means permitted by law or the LLC Agreement. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Committee shall act on the affirmative vote of a majority of its members. Subject to the LLC Agreement, the Committee may act by written consent of a majority of its members in lieu of a meeting. The Committee shall determine its own rules and procedures, including designation of a chairperson pro tempore in the absence of the Chairperson, and designation of a secretary. The secretary need not be a member of the Committee and shall attend Committee meetings and prepare minutes. The Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings, which shall be recorded or filed with the books and records of the Company. Any member of the Board shall be provided with copies of such Committee minutes if requested.

The Committee may ask members of management, employees, outside counsel, or others whose advice and counsel are relevant to the issues then being considered by the Committee to attend any meetings and to provide such pertinent information as the Committee may request. The Committee shall have authority to delegate any of its responsibilities to one or more subcommittees as the Committee may from time to time deem appropriate. The Chairperson of the Committee shall be responsible for leadership of the Committee, including preparing the agenda, presiding over Committee meetings, making Committee assignments and reporting the Committee's actions to the Board from time to time (but at least once each year) as requested by the Board.

IV. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee's scope will encompass company policies and performance related to sustainability, as described in the "Purpose" section above. It will review company objectives, plans and performance and recommend actions, as necessary, to confirm continuous performance improvement and alignment with stakeholder expectations (both internal and external). The Committee shall have the following specific authority and responsibilities (in addition to any others that the Board may from time to time delegate to the Committee):

1. The Committee shall (a) review the company's strategy, policies and practices for consistency with its responsibility toward sustainability and (b) make such recommendations to the Board and management with respect thereto as it may deem advisable.

2. The Committee shall oversee management's monitoring and enforcement of the company's policies to protect the health and safety of employees, contractors, customers, the public and the environment and review with management the quality of the company's procedures for identifying, assessing, monitoring and managing key environmental, safety and social risks in the company's business.

3. The Committee shall review and advise the Board on (a) the company's sustainability goals and commitments, (b) the company's achievement of its sustainability goals and commitments, (c) the company's position in relevant independent ranking systems and (d) any reporting of such targets and the company's progress and position in rankings.

4. The Committee shall (a) consider, and bring to the attention of the Board as appropriate, current and emerging political, social and environmental trends, risks and major global legislative and regulatory developments or other public policy issues that may affect the business operations, performance or public image of the company or are otherwise pertinent to the company and its stakeholders and (b) make recommendations to the Board, as appropriate, regarding how the company's policies and practices can adjust to or address such trends and issues.

5. The Committee shall advise the Board on significant stakeholder concerns relating to sustainability.

6. The Committee shall review periodically with management the status and level of the Company's contingency planning and emergency response activities and preparedness.

7. The Committee shall oversee (a) the company's policies and practices promoting diversity and inclusion within the company and (b) the company's human and workplace rights and policies.

8. The Committee shall review and provide guidance on (a) the company's public policy advocacy efforts to confirm alignment with company policies and values and (b) the company's relations with indigenous peoples.

9. The Committee shall oversee and review the company's policies on community investment and corporate charitable activities.

V. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

The Committee shall review its own performance and reassess the adequacy of this charter at least annually in such manner as it deems appropriate, and submit such evaluation, including any recommendations for change, to the full Board for review, discussion and approval.
