Issuance and Sale of Additional 6¾% Senior Notes due 2022

Overview. On September 19, 2012, Univision Communications Inc. (the “Company”) issued $600 million aggregate principal amount of its 6¾% Senior Secured Notes due 2022 (the “New Notes”) under the Indenture, dated as of August 29, 2012 (the “Indenture”), among the Company, the guarantors party thereto and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as trustee (the “Trustee”). The New Notes were sold pursuant to a purchase agreement dated September 17, 2012 among the Company, the guarantors named therein and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Barclays Capital Inc., Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, as representatives of the several purchasers, at a price equal to 102.875% of their par value plus accrued and unpaid interest from August 29, 2012. The net proceeds from the sale of the New Notes have been used to repay a portion of borrowings under the non-extended and extended portions of the Company’s senior secured term loan facilities plus any fees and expenses related thereto. The New Notes are additional notes under the Indenture pursuant to which the Company previously issued $625 million aggregate principal amount of 6¾% Senior Secured Notes due 2022 (the “Existing Notes” and, together with the New Notes, the “Notes”). The New Notes are treated as a single series with the Existing Notes and have the same terms as the Existing Notes (except that New Notes issued pursuant to Regulation S will trade separately under different CUSIP/ISIN numbers until 40 days after September 19, 2012, the issue date of the New Notes, and thereafter subject to the terms of the indenture governing the Notes and the applicable procedures of the depository). The New Notes and the Existing Notes vote as one class under the Indenture. After the issuance of the New Notes, the Company has $1.225 billion aggregate principal amount of the Notes outstanding.

The Notes will mature on September 15, 2022. The Company will pay interest on the Notes on March 15 and September 15 of each year, commencing on March 15, 2013. Interest on the Notes will accrue at a rate of 6¾% per annum and be payable in cash.

Guarantees and Collateral. All of the Company’s direct and indirect wholly owned domestic subsidiaries that guarantee the obligations under the Company’s senior secured credit facilities jointly and severally and unconditionally guarantee the Notes on a senior secured basis. The Notes and the related guarantees are secured by a first priority lien, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions, on substantially all of the Company’s and the guarantors’ property and assets that secured the Company’s and such guarantors’ obligations under its senior secured credit facilities.

Ranking. The Notes are the Company’s senior secured obligations and rank equal in right of payment with all of the Company’s existing and future senior debt and other obligations, except that the Notes are effectively senior in right of payment to its existing and future unsecured senior obligations to the extent of the value of the collateral securing the Notes. The guarantees are each guarantor’s senior secured obligations and rank equal in right of payment with all of such guarantor’s existing and future senior debt, except that such guarantor’s guarantees are effectively senior in right of payment to such guarantor’s existing and future unsecured senior obligations to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such guarantees. The Notes and the related guarantees are effectively subordinated to any obligations that are secured by any of the Company’s or the guarantors’ assets that are not part of the collateral for the Notes and the related guarantees, as applicable, to the extent of the value of the assets securing such obligations. In addition, the Notes and the related guarantees are structurally subordinated to any obligations of the Company’s subsidiaries that are not guarantors of the Notes.

Security Documents. The Trustee and Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch, as the collateral agent (the “Collateral Agent”), have entered into the Representative Supplement No. 5, dated as of September 19, 2012, to the Intercreditor Agreement, dated as of July 9, 2009, among the Company, Univision of Puerto Rico Inc., the other grantors party thereto and the Collateral Agent as to the relative priorities of their respective security interest in the assets securing the New Notes and the borrowings under the senior secured credit facilities and other first priority lien secured debt and certain other matters relating to the administration of security interests. The holders of the New Notes have the benefit of security interests granted pursuant to the Collateral Agreement, dated as of July 9, 2009, among the Company, the subsidiaries of the Company party thereto and the Collateral Agent, the First-Lien Trademark Security Agreement, dated as of July 9, 2009, among the Company, the additional grantors party thereto and the Collateral Agent, and the First-Lien Copyright Security Agreement, dated as of July 9, 2009, among the Company, the additional grantors party thereto and the Collateral Agent.

Offer to Purchase; Open Market Purchases. The Company is not required to make any sinking fund payments with respect to the Notes. However, under certain circumstances, the Company may be required to offer to purchase the Notes as described under “Change of Control” and “Asset Sale Proceeds” below. The Company may at any time and from time to time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise.

Optional Redemption. The Company may redeem some or all of the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time prior to September 15, 2017, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed plus an applicable premium as of the date of redemption, and, without duplication, accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date, subject to the rights of holders on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date. The applicable premium means, with respect to any Note on any redemption date, the greater of: (a) 1.0% of the principal amount of such Note on such redemption date; and (b) the excess, if any, of (i) the present value at such redemption date of (A) the redemption price of such Note at September 15, 2017 (such redemption price being set forth in the table below), plus (B) all required interest payments due on such Note through September 15, 2017 (excluding accrued but unpaid interest to the redemption date) computed using a discount rate equal to a treasury rate as of such redemption date plus 50 basis points; over (ii) the principal amount of such Note on such redemption date.

On and after September 15, 2017 the Notes may be redeemed, at the Company’s option, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time at the applicable redemption prices (expressed as percentages of principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed) plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the applicable redemption date, subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date, if redeemed during the twelve-month period beginning on September 15 of each of the years indicated below:

Year	Percentage
2017	103.375%
2018	102.250%
2019	101.125%
2020 and thereafter	100.000%

In addition, until September 15, 2015, the Company may, at its option on one or more occasions, redeem up to 40% of the then outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes at a redemption price equal to 106.750% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the applicable redemption date, subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date, with the net cash proceeds of one or more equity offerings to the extent such net cash proceeds are contributed to the Company; provided that at least 50% of the sum of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes originally issued under the Indenture and any additional Notes, including the New Notes, issued under the Indenture after the Issue Date remains outstanding immediately after the occurrence of such redemption; provided further that each such redemption occurs within 180 days of the date of closing of each such equity offering.

The Company may provide in such notice that payment of the redemption price and performance of its obligations with respect thereto may be performed by another person.

Change of Control. If the Company experiences a Change of Control (as defined in the Indenture), unless the Company has previously or concurrently sent a redemption notice with respect to all the outstanding Notes, it will be required to make an offer to repurchase the Notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase, subject to the right of holders of the Notes of record on a relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

Asset Sale Proceeds. If the Company or its subsidiaries engage in certain Asset Sales (as defined in the Indenture), the Company generally must either invest the net cash proceeds from such sales in its business within a specific period of time, prepay certain of its or the guarantors' secured debt or senior debt of non-guarantors or make an offer to purchase a principal amount of the Notes and certain other debt equal to the excess net cash proceeds. The purchase price of the Notes will be 100% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of purchase.

Covenants. The Indenture contains covenants limiting the Company's ability and the ability of its restricted subsidiaries to, among other things:

- incur additional debt or issue certain preferred stock or disqualified stock;
- pay dividends or make distributions on the Company's capital stock or redeem, repurchase or retire the Company's capital stock or subordinated debt;
- make certain investments;
- create liens on the Company's or its subsidiary guarantors' assets to secure debt;
- create restrictions on the payment of dividends or other amounts to the Company from its restricted subsidiaries that are not guarantors of the Notes;
- enter into transactions with affiliates;
- merge or consolidate with another person or sell or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the Company's assets;
- sell assets, including capital stock of the Company's subsidiaries; and
- designate the Company's subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries.

No Registration Rights. Holders of the Notes do not have the benefit of any exchange or registration rights.

Events of Default. The Indenture also provides for customary events of default, including, without limitation, payment defaults, covenant defaults, cross acceleration defaults to certain other indebtedness in excess of specified amounts, certain events of bankruptcy and insolvency, judgment defaults in excess of specified amounts, the failure of any guarantee by a significant party to be in full force and effect and if security interest on the collateral ceases to be in full force and effect, except as otherwise permitted under the Indenture, the security documents and the intercreditor agreement, or is declared invalid or unenforceable. If any such event of default occurs and is continuing under the Indenture (other than bankruptcy events which shall result in automatic acceleration of the Notes), the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then total outstanding Notes may declare the principal, premium, if any, interest and any other monetary obligations on all the then outstanding Notes issued under the Indenture to be due and payable immediately.
