

CVS HEALTH CORPORATION

A Delaware corporation
(the “Company”)

Management Planning and Development Committee Charter

Approved as of February 17, 2021

Purpose

The Management Planning and Development Committee (the “Committee”) was created by the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) to:

- oversee the Company’s compensation and benefits policies generally;
- evaluate the performance of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”), executive officers, and other designated officers (the “designated officers”);
- in consultation with the other independent directors of the Company, oversee and set compensation for the Company’s CEO;
- oversee and set compensation for the Company’s designated officers;
- review and recommend to the Board compensation (including equity-based compensation) for the Company’s non-employee directors; and
- prepare the compensation committee report to be included in the Company’s annual proxy statement.

Membership

The Committee shall consist of at least three members, comprised solely of independent directors meeting the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) as promulgated from time to time for membership on a company’s compensation committee. Furthermore, at least two members of the Committee shall qualify as “non-employee” directors under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall recommend nominees for appointment to the Committee annually and as vacancies or newly created positions occur. Committee members shall be appointed by the Board and may be removed by the Board at any time. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall recommend to the Board, and the Board shall designate, the Chair of the Committee.

Procedures

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities under this charter, but not less frequently than four times a year. The Chair of the Committee, in consultation with the other Committee members, shall determine the frequency and length of the committee meetings and shall set meeting agendas consistent with this charter. The Committee shall maintain minutes of its meetings and make available copies of such minutes to the Board. The Secretary of the Company shall maintain copies of all minutes as permanent records of the Company. No executive should attend that portion of any meeting where such executive's performance or compensation is discussed, unless specifically invited by the Committee.

Authority

General

The Committee has the sole authority to retain and terminate any advisor, including any legal counsel, accountant or compensation consultant, that the Committee may consider necessary, without conferring with or obtaining the approval of management or the full Board. The Committee has the sole authority to approve all of such advisors' fees and other retention terms, and shall have available appropriate funding from the Company. The Committee shall take into account the independence of advisors in a manner consistent with any applicable requirements of the NYSE, as well as any other criteria it deems appropriate. The Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of any such advisor's work.

Delegation

The Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees or the Chair of the Committee when it deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company.

The Committee may delegate to the Chair of the Committee or, in his or her absence, to one or more of its other members, the authority to make grants and awards of stock rights or options to any non-Section 16 officer of the Company under such of the Company's incentive-compensation or other equity-based plans as the Committee deems appropriate and in accordance with the terms of such plans.

The Committee may delegate its authority hereunder relating to compensation practices for employees other than executive officers and directors, to the extent it deems appropriate and consistent with law and customary practice, and may otherwise fully delegate authority relating to matters it deems to be ministerial.

Responsibilities

In addition to any other responsibilities that may be assigned from time to time by the Board, the Committee is responsible for the following matters:

Compensation and Benefits Policies

- The Committee shall review the Company's compensation and benefits policies generally, including any incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans of the Company (subject, if applicable, to stockholder ratification). In reviewing such compensation and benefits policies, the Committee may consider the recruitment, development, promotion, retention and compensation of senior executives and other employees of the Company and any other factors that it deems appropriate, including compensation of senior executives at peer companies. The Committee shall report the results of such review and any action it takes with respect to the Company's compensation and benefits policies to the Board.

Recoupment Policy

- The Committee shall approve, or recommend to the Board for approval, the creation or revision of any recoupment policy allowing the Company to recoup compensation paid to current and/or former employees, if and as the Committee determines to be necessary or appropriate, or as required by applicable law or NYSE requirements.

Executive Compensation

- The Committee shall review and approve for each of the designated officers of the Company, and in coordination with the other independent directors of the Company, shall review and approve for the CEO, his or her (i) annual base salary level, (ii) annual incentive compensation, (iii) long-term incentive compensation, (iv) employment, severance and change-in-control agreements, if any, and (v) any other compensation, ongoing perquisites or special benefit items. In so reviewing and approving executive compensation, the Committee shall, among other things:
 - identify, review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to executive compensation, including those relevant to the compensation of the CEO;
 - in coordination with the other independent directors of the Company, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of such goals and objectives and set the CEO's compensation based on such evaluation and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including the cost to the Company of such compensation);
 - evaluate each designated officer's performance in light of such goals and objectives and set each designated officer's compensation based on such evaluation and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including the cost to the Company of such compensation);
 - in coordination with the independent directors of the Company, determine any long-term incentive component of the CEO's compensation taking into account awards given to the CEO in past years, the Company's performance, shareholder returns, the value of similar incentive awards at comparable companies and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including the cost to the Company of such compensation);
 - determine any long-term incentive component of each designated officer's compensation based on awards given to such executive in past years, the Company's performance, shareholder return and the value of similar incentive awards relative to such targets at comparable companies and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including the cost to the Company of such compensation);

- review external surveys and compensation studies to assess the competitiveness of compensation for designated senior executives, including the identification of peer companies that should be used for purposes of determining competitive compensation packages for designated senior executives; and
- to the extent applicable, certify that performance goals and objectives for performance-based compensation have been satisfied.

Director Compensation

The Committee shall review the compensation arrangements (including equity-based compensation) for the Company's directors. Changes in Board compensation, if any, should come at the recommendation of the Committee, but with full discussion and approval by the Board.

Disclosure

The Committee shall prepare the Compensation Committee Report required by SEC rules to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement. The Committee shall review and discuss the Company's Compensation Disclosure and Analysis as required by SEC rules ("CD&A") with management and provide a recommendation to the Board regarding the inclusion of the CD&A within the Company's proxy statement.

Risk Assessment

The Committee shall review and assess risks arising from the Company's compensation policies and practices for its employees and whether any such risks are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Reporting to the Board

- The Committee shall report to the Board periodically and at least annually. These reports shall include a review of any recommendations or issues that arise with respect to Company compensation and benefits policies, executive compensation and any other matters that the Committee deems appropriate or is requested to be included by the Board. In addition, the Committee shall, in consultation with the other independent directors of the Company, evaluate and then present its evaluation of the performance of the senior management of the Company to the full Board.
- At least annually, the Committee shall evaluate its own performance, which shall be reviewed by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and reported to the Board.
- The Committee shall periodically review and assess the adequacy of this charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
