1. Gifts

As a general matter, the provision of gifts is prohibited. However, in the ordinary course of business, REIT Personnel may give modest gifts to counterparts as a token or courtesy.

Therefore, REIT Personnel may provide token gifts of modest value if: (1) the gift does not involve cash or cash equivalent gifts (e.g., gift cards, store cards or gambling chips); (2) the gift is permitted under applicable laws, including such laws as applicable to the recipients and their employers; (3) the gift is presented openly with complete transparency; and (4) the gift is provided as a token of esteem, courtesy or in return for hospitality, and comports with local custom.

2. Entertainment and Hospitality

Entertainment and hospitality involving Government Officials and the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers may be appropriate in certain circumstances. Entertainment is permitted, if the applicable expenses: (1) are related to the promotion of the REIT Entities’ products or services or to the execution or performance of its contract with a customer; (2) are permitted under applicable laws, including such laws as applicable to the Government Officials or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers and their employers; (3) are customary under local business practices; (4) are reasonable under the circumstances and not lavish or extravagant; and (5) avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety.

When possible, business entertainment payments should be made directly by the relevant REIT Entity to the provider of the service, and should not be paid directly to a Government Official or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers or other party as a reimbursement.

All business entertainment expenses, regardless of amount or attendees, should be properly documented in an expense report. Such expense report shall enumerate the attendees, including the name of each attendee and his or her title and place of employment, and provide a detailed business purpose for the entertainment.

Please note that in addition to traditional gifts, both hospitality and entertainment that are provided to business relationships where the REIT Personnel are not in attendance, and instances where the REIT Entity pays for travel related expenses for a Government Official or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers, shall be considered gifts, and subject to the rules and requirements for gifts specified in this ACC Policy.

3. Travel and Lodging

Reasonable and bona fide travel expenditures paid on behalf of Government Officials or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers may be permissible in certain circumstances. Permissible payments may cover the costs of travel for an official or customer to visit the REIT Entities’ offices and discuss the REIT Entities’ qualifications for projects within the official’s responsibility or travel in connection with a project status review. Travel expenses shall not be extravagant or lavish, and may include: (1) airfare; (2) lodging cost; and (3) ground transportation costs during the trip. Payment of cash per diems, expenses unrelated to legitimate business activities, and expenses that benefit a friend or family member of a Government Official or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers are prohibited.

Direct reimbursements should also be avoided. Rather, reimbursements should be made to the Government Entity (“Government Entity” means any nation or government or any province, state or any other political subdivision thereof, any entity, authority or body exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of or pertaining to government, any court, tribunal or arbitrator and any securities exchange or body or authority regulating such securities exchange.) or business entity that employs the expense recipient. Payments directly to the expense recipient (of a per diem allowance, expense reimbursement, or for any other purpose) require specific written approval of the Compliance Officer in all cases.

4. Employment/Internships

On occasion, Government Officials or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers may request that the REIT Entities provide internships or employment to certain individuals. Offering internships or employment to Government Officials or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers may be viewed as providing an item of value.

This ACC Policy sets forth guidance for handling such requests from Government Officials or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers. If a candidate is interviewed for an internship or employment within the ordinary course of filling a position, the Compliance Officer must be notified of the candidate’s relationship to a Government Official or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers. If a candidate related to a Government Official or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers is interviewed outside of the ordinary course of filling a position, any internship or employment offer must be pre-approved by the Compliance Officer.

C. Political Contributions and Charitable Donations

REIT Personnel may not make political or charitable donations, whether in their own name or in the name of the REIT Entities, to obtain or retain business or to gain an improper business advantage. Any political or charitable contributions by the REIT Entities must be permitted under the law, permissible pursuant to the terms of this ACC Policy, made to a bona fide organization, and (in the case of political contributions or charitable contributions connected to any Government Official or Government Entity) made with the prior approval of the Compliance Officer. In certain instances where there is heightened risk of corruption, the Compliance Officer may require diligence to be conducted. The Compliance Officer must be notified if a Government Official solicits a political or charitable contribution in connection with any government action related to the REIT Entities or their respective affiliates. Individual REIT Personnel may not make political contributions on behalf of the REIT Entities or their respective affiliates.

Relationship with Third Parties

Anti-corruption laws prohibit indirect payments made through a third party, including giving anything of value to a third party while knowing that value will be given to a Government Official or the REIT Entities’ business partners or customers for an improper purpose. Third parties can include, but are not limited to, consultants, vendors, agents, or any other individual or entity

	working on behalf of the REIT Entities. REIT Personnel should avoid situations involving third parties that might lead to a violation of this ACC Policy or applicable anti-corruption laws. REIT Personnel who deal with third parties are responsible for taking reasonable precautions to ensure that the third parties conduct business ethically and comply with this ACC Policy. Such precautions may include conducting a risk-based due diligence review of a third party, inserting appropriate anti-corruption compliance provisions in the third party’s written contract, requiring the third party to certify that it has not violated and will not violate this ACC Policy and any applicable anti-corruption laws during the course of its business with the REIT Entity, and monitoring the reasonableness and legitimacy of the services provided by and the compensation paid to the third party during the engagement. REIT Personnel should pay particular attention and closely monitor high-risk third parties whose engagement may involve interactions with Government Officials, including for purposes of obtaining permits, clearances, authorizations, or similar approvals or review by a governmental authority or agency. Any doubts regarding the scope of appropriate due diligence efforts in this regard should be resolved by contacting the Compliance Officer.
Recordkeeping and Internal Controls	This ACC Policy requires that all expenditures made by the REIT Entities are accurately reflected in each REIT Entity’s financial records and that all payments made with funds of such a REIT Entity, or on behalf of such REIT Entity, have been properly authorized. REIT Personnel must follow all applicable standards, principles, laws and practices for accounting and financial reporting. REIT Personnel must be timely and complete when preparing all reports and records required by management. In particular, REIT Personnel should ensure that no part of any payment is to be made for any purpose other than that to be fully and accurately described in the Company’s books and records. REIT Personnel should use best efforts to ensure that all transactions, dispositions, and payments involving the REIT Entities’ funds or assets are properly and accurately recorded in such REIT Entity’s financial records. No undisclosed or unrecorded accounts are to be established for any purpose. False or artificial entries are not to be made in the REIT Entities’ books and records for any reason. Finally, personal funds must not be used to accomplish what is otherwise prohibited by this ACC Policy. The Compliance Officer is primarily responsible for the oversight and enforcement of this ACC Policy.
Training	All REIT Personnel must receive and review a copy of this ACC Policy. All such REIT Personnel must then certify in writing that they (1) have reviewed this ACC Policy; (2) agree to abide by this ACC Policy; and (3) agree to report any potential violations of this ACC Policy. In addition, regular anti-corruption compliance training programs will be offered to educate REIT Personnel about the requirements and obligations of anti-corruption laws and this ACC Policy.
Reporting Requirements and Whistleblower Protection	The Company takes its commitment to anti-corruption compliance very seriously and expects all REIT Personnel to share that commitment. The Company therefore expects and requires that any REIT Personnel who have knowledge of or reason to suspect, any violation of this ACC Policy contact the Compliance Officer immediately. Reports may be made anonymously. If any REIT Personnel fails to report known or suspected violations, then the relevant REIT Personnel may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. It is the Company’s policy that, if the report of known or suspected violations is made honestly and in good faith, no adverse employment-related action will be taken against any REIT Personnel in retaliation for reporting a violation or suspected violation of anti-corruption laws or this ACC Policy. All questions regarding this ACC Policy should be directed to the Compliance Officer.
