Kinross’ strong operating results are driven by solid and consistent performance from a targeted portfolio of mines and development projects located in three core regions: the Americas, West Africa and Russia.

Diversified Portfolio of Mines and Projects

Nearly 60% of estimated 2019 gold equivalent production from mines located in the Americas

Projects and Exploration

Portfolio of development projects and future opportunities progressing well.

Tasiast Expansion:
- Proceeding with the Tasiast 24k project to incrementally increase throughput capacity at the mine to 24,000 tonnes per day.
- Tasiast continues to benefit significantly from the Phase One expansion completed in 2018.

Round Mountain Phase W:
- Construction and commissioning of Phase W have been completed, with the project now fully transferred to the Operations team.
- First gold bar poured in May 2019.
- Expected to extend mining to 2027 at one of our top performing operations.

Bald Mountain Vantage Complex:
- Construction and commissioning of Vantage Complex have been completed, with the project now fully transferred to the Operations team.
- First gold bar poured in late June 2019.

Fort Knox Gilmore:
- Low-cost brownfields project expected to extend mine life to 2030, with mining activities going to 2027.
- Initial production from Gilmore is expected in early 2020, as stripping commenced in Q3 2019.

Russia Region:
- Acquisition of the high-quality Chulbatkan project expected to close in early 2020.
- Strong 2018 exploration results extended mine life by one year and exploration continues to be a priority.

Chile:
- Continuing to evaluate the potential for a return to long-term production in Chile.
- Expected to complete the La Coipa Restart project feasibility study in early 2020, and the Lobo-Marte project pre-feasibility study in mid-2020.

Exploration:
- Continued focus on brownfield opportunities, and prioritizing exploration drilling at Kupol-Dvoinoye, Chirano, and Bald Mountain.
Kinross Gold offers a compelling investment opportunity as a senior gold producer with an excellent operational track record, strong balance sheet, an attractive suite of development projects and a commitment to responsible mining.
