Kinross obtains court order to extend annual meeting date

Toronto – Kinross Gold Corporation (TSX-K; NYSE-KGC) (“Kinross” or the “Company”) announced today that the Ontario Superior Court of Justice has granted an order extending the time for holding Kinross’ annual and special meeting of shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2004. The order provides an extension until June 30, 2006, which will allow Kinross to combine its shareholders’ meeting for the year ended December 31, 2004 with its shareholders’ meeting for the year ended December 31, 2005. The combined meeting is currently anticipated to be held in early May.
