

NEWS RELEASE

Building Agricultural Capacity in Greece

8/1/2015

Adobe Flash Player or an HTML5 supported browser is required for video playback.

Get the latest Flash Player

Learn more about upgrading to an HTML5 browser

In response to interest from communities near our Halkidiki assets in Greece, Eldorado organized a trip to Kostantinidis Nursery, a leading plant nursery in Serres, northern Greece. Community members learnt about crops they could grow to diversify their current agricultural base and improve their income.

Established in 1952, Kostantinidis Nursery is actively engaged in growing 'superfood' plants and trees such as goji-berries, blackberries and elderflower.