

Improving Driver Safety in Turkey

Recognising that risk for accident was high due to extensive use, we recently reviewed our light vehicle management system. Since the review, we have decreased our light vehicle use in Turkey by over half, held additional safety training for drivers and installed tracking systems to manage compliance with traffic safety rules. This resulted in significantly improved driver safety compliance and awareness.