EVO Payments and Bci Announce Regulatory Approval to Commence Operations in Chile

6/2/2021

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- EVO Payments, Inc. (NASDAQ: EVOP) ("EVO"), a leading global provider of payment technology integrations and acquiring solutions, today announced that its joint venture with Banco de Crédito e Inversiones ("Bci"), the third largest private bank in Chile, has begun operations in Chile after securing approval from the Comisión Para el Mercado Financiero ("CMF").

The joint venture, which was formed in 2020, will go to market under the name Bci Pagos. With the sales and marketing campaign now underway, the joint venture will leverage Bci's branch network and existing customer relationships and EVO's payments expertise to build market share in Chile.

"We are very pleased to announce that we are now fully operational in Chile," said James G. Kelly, CEO, EVO. "With Bci's exceptional reputation and deep customer base our joint venture is well positioned to launch in the Chilean market and provide innovative global payments solutions."

Eugenio Von Chrismar Carvajal, CEO, Bci, added, "As a result of today's announcement, we can officially begin offering EVO's global products and technology solutions to our extensive customers across Chile. We are excited to work with EVO to enhance our customer relationships and further expand card acceptance in the market."
