In this year’s report, Aragon Research, an independent research and advisory firm, examined Cornerstone along with 18 other major learning providers. The analysis was conducted based on each provider’s market and product strategy, product and selling performance and global reach. The results concluded that Cornerstone is a “Leader” among learning providers.

“Enterprises need to ensure that employees and customers have a great learning experience and are seeking out providers, such as Cornerstone, that can deliver knowledge, just-in-time learning and compliance-related training,” said Jim Lundy, Founder and CEO, Aragon Research. “Trends, issues, and challenges that affect business today can and will change tomorrow, and associates need access to tools that enable troubleshooting and performance improvement.”

Cornerstone Learning provides organizations with a holistic approach to corporate learning that combines an industry-leading learning management system with modern learning content and a personalized, Netflix-style experience. Additionally, with the content subscription service, Content Anytime, organizations can provide their employees with access to thousands of pre-curated e-learning courses that cover today’s most sought-after skills.

As a global leader in corporate learning, Cornerstone has enabled approximately 2 billion course enrollments and 1.5 billion courses completions over the past two years.
