

IAMGOLD CORPORATION

NON-EXECUTIVE CHAIR OF THE BOARD

POSITION DESCRIPTION

General

The non-executive Chair of the Board, who shall be independent in accordance with applicable securities laws, shall be responsible for leadership in the effective functioning of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. In discharging his/her responsibility, the Chair will, from time to time: (i) provide leadership to the Board on specific issues, (ii) assist the Board in performing its duties and meeting its obligations, including the duties and obligations of the Board specified in its mandate as relating to strategic planning, (iii) act as the spokesperson for the Board, (iv) act as an intermediary between the Board and the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation (the “CEO”); and (v) provide advice and counsel to the CEO.

Specific Responsibilities

Without limiting the generality of the responsibility of the Chair as described above, the Chair shall:

- 1) schedule the number and timing of Board meetings each calendar year so as to enable the Board to deal on a timely basis with all matters for which the Board is responsible;
- 2) shall receive all materials proposed to be discussed by a Committee, and in consultation with the Chairs of Board Committees and after consulting with the CEO and other senior officers of the Corporation (“Management”), establish the agenda for each Board meeting with a view to bringing before the Board: (i) matters in respect of which the Chairs of Board committees, the CEO or other members of Management require or want Board direction or approval, and (ii) matters with which the Board is obliged to or wishes to deal;

- 3) whether or not a formal member of a Committee, shall attend all Committee meetings, in addition to all Board meetings;
- 4) assist the CEO and Management reasonably in advance of each Board meeting to provide all necessary or advisable information relating to each matter to be dealt with by the Board at that meeting;
- 5) where, in the Chair's opinion, the subject matter and expected duration of a Board meeting or the particular circumstances of a member of the Board (a "Director") so warrant, encourage a Director to participate in the meeting by means of telephone, teleconference, videoconference or other modality by which Directors participating in the meeting are able to speak to and be heard by each other;
- 6) approve the general nature and length of all presentations to be made at each Board meeting and review written presentations to be made to the Board before such presentations are made;
- 7) at the Chair's discretion prior to any Board meeting, confer with one or more Directors on any matter to be discussed at the Board meeting.

Conduct of Board Meetings

- 8) act as the Chair of each Board meeting at which the Chair is present;
- 9) conduct the business of each Board meeting in a manner that would generally result in all matters on the meeting's agenda being dealt with effectively and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, endeavor to frame and focus the discussion of any such matter;
- 10) propose the termination of discussion on any matter at a Board meeting when he/she is of the opinion that the matter has been thoroughly canvassed and that no new points of view or information are being presented (with the understanding that the Chair's discretion in such cases will be exercised so as to err on the side of allowing excessive discussion rather than insufficient discussion);

- 11) allow all Directors who wish to address a matter at a Board meeting a reasonable opportunity to do so at that Board meeting;
- 12) attempt to achieve a consensus of Directors on any matter discussed at a Board meeting in respect of which: (i) the Board’s decision, views or advice has been requested or is required; and (ii) Directors express conflicting positions, views or advice;
- 13) in any case where a Director (the “conflicted Director”)
 - a) is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Corporation, or
 - b) is a director, officer or employee of, or has an interest in, any person who is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Corporation.

Arrange for such conflicted Director to excuse himself/herself from the entirety of that portion of any Board meeting at which the Board discusses and votes on any such material contract or transaction;

Board Culture

- 14) use reasonable efforts to promote and support a Board culture characterized by
 - i) the Board’s acceptance of its accountability for the performance of the Corporation;
 - ii) the acceptance by each Director of his/her responsibility to use his/her best efforts in carrying out his/her duties as a Director;
 - iii) the Board’s insistence on the highest level of integrity and honesty in the actions of the Board and Management;
 - iv) respect and trust amongst Directors;
 - v) the open and timely sharing of all relevant information amongst all Directors;
 - vi) acceptance by all Directors of the right of every Director to hold and express dissenting opinions;

- vii) a genuine commitment by Directors to good governance practices; and
- viii) a willingness on the part of Directors to function in a collaborative manner;

Shareholder Meetings

- 15) assist the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Management in developing agendas for annual and special meetings of shareholders;
- 16) as required, communicate with shareholders, shareholder advocacy groups, proxy advisory firms and other shareholders on matters to be brought before a shareholders meeting;
- 17) chair each meeting of shareholders; Spokesperson on Board and Shareholder Matters
