JELD-WEN Reports Strong Progress in 2024 Sustainability Report

2025-07-29

CHARLOTTE, N.C., July 29, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- JELD-WEN Holding, Inc. (NYSE: JELD), a leading global manufacturer of building products, today announced the release of its 2024 Sustainability Report, highlighting significant progress toward its environmental, social and governance (ESG) goals.

The report details JELD-WEN's continued commitment to building a more sustainable future through innovation, operational efficiency and responsible sourcing. It outlines progress and commitments across four key pillars: products, environmental stewardship, social responsibility and governance.

"Sustainability is not just a responsibility – it is a business driver," said CEO William J. Christensen. "We are proud of the strides we have made in reducing our environmental footprint and investing in our people with a continued focus on creating lasting value."

JELD-WEN has four sustainability commitments driving progress in both the short and long term. By 2030, JELD-WEN aims to ensure all wood used in production is responsibly sourced and achieve a Total Recordable Incident Rate (TRIR) of less than 1.0. In the long term, the company is dedicated to achieving net zero Scope 1 and Scope 2 greenhouse gas emissions as well as sending zero manufacturing waste to landfills by 2050.

"We are embedding sustainability in every part of our business – from how we design products to how we operate our facilities," said Director of Global ESG Carolyn Payne. "As we lead the way in building a more sustainable future for our industry, we are proud of the momentum we have created and look forward to the continued progress ahead."

Highlights from the Report:

- 63% of wood suppliers in compliance with Global Sourcing Policy*
- 12% reduction in metric tons of waste sent to landfills year-over-year
- 10% reduction in Scope 1 and Scope 2 greenhouse gas emissions since 2021
- 7% reduction in energy consumption year-over-year
- 5% reduction in lost time injury rate year-over-year
