Navistar International Corporation to Host Security Analyst Meeting in New York City on December 14

WARRENVILLE, Ill., Dec 12, 2005 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Navistar International Corporation (NYSE:NAV) today announced that it will discuss fiscal 2005 earnings and operational metrics at a December 14 meeting for security analysts in New York City.

In addition to fiscal 2005 information, Daniel C. Ustian, Navistar chairman, president and chief executive officer, and several Navistar executives will discuss the 2006 business outlook, as well as future business strategies and 2006 earnings guidance at the meeting.

The security analyst meeting is set to begin at 1:00 p.m. EST in the Hotel Sofitel. The meeting will be Web cast and can be accessed through Navistar's Web site at <http://www.nav-international.com/investor/> and connecting to the link to the analyst meeting. Supplemental information dealing with management presentations at the security analyst meeting will be available on the company's web site at <http://www.shareholder.com/nav/>. For those unable to participate on the live call, the Web cast will be archived on the Web site thru December 31, 2005.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements contained in this news release that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act, Section 21E of the Exchange Act, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements only speak as of the date of this news release and we assume no obligation to update the information included in this news release. Such forward-looking statements include information concerning our possible or assumed future results of operations, including descriptions of our business strategy. These statements often include words such as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate" or similar expressions. These statements are not guarantees of performance or results and they involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Although we believe that these forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, there are many factors that could affect our actual financial results or results of operations and could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. For a further description of these factors, see Exhibit 99.1 to our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004.
