

Curtiss-Wright Announces New Corporate Controller

Glenn Coleman Appointed Vice President & Corporate Controller Kevin McClurg Appointed Vice President of Finance for Flow Control Segment

ROSELAND, N.J., May 6, 2008 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Curtiss-Wright Corporation (NYSE: CW) today announced changes in its financial staff. Kevin McClurg has accepted the position of Vice President of Finance for the corporation's Flow Control operating segment. In his new position, Mr. McClurg will be responsible for the segment's financial activities, systems, corporate planning, corporate development, real estate, risk management and internal audits. Mr. McClurg has been Corporate Controller of Curtiss-Wright Corporation since 2002.

"As Chief Accounting Officer, Kevin guided the company through numerous and complex changes in the accounting world, including the impact of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act," said Martin R. Benante, Chairman and CEO of Curtiss-Wright Corporation. "I am confident he will continue to be a strong asset to the Corporation and the Flow Control organization."

Succeeding Mr. McClurg as Curtiss-Wright Corporation's Vice President/Corporate Controller is Glenn Coleman. Prior to joining Curtiss-Wright, Mr. Coleman held various positions of increasing responsibility with Alcatel Lucent (formerly Lucent Technologies), including most recently Vice President, Finance of the Wireless Business Group. In addition, he served as Vice President, Finance and Americas Controller, Audit Vice President and Finance Director/Shared Services. Prior to joining Lucent, Mr. Coleman commenced his career with the accounting firm Coopers and Lybrand, L.L.P.

Mr. Coleman holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Montclair State University, and is a CPA.
