

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AstroNova to Nominate Six Highly Qualified Directors for Election at 2025 Shareholder Meeting

- AstroNova Board brings a mix of highly relevant executive leadership and public company directorship experience as well as a breadth of knowledge in mergers and acquisitions, finance, capital markets and global operations
- Board adamantly rejects dissident nominees who bring no added value; activist's proposal introduces significant disruption to the continuity of oversight and governance which will delay execution of strategy to scale the business and deliver stronger earnings power

WEST WARWICK, R.I., May 5, 2025 -- AstroNova, Inc. (Nasdaq: ALOT), a leading innovator in data visualization technology, today disclosed its slate of highly qualified director nominees for election at the 2025 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. In the coming days, the Company plans to file its preliminary proxy materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission and urges shareholders to DISCARD any proxy materials, including the GOLD card, they may receive from Samir Patel and Askeladden Capital Management LLC ("Askeladden").

The Board of Directors of AstroNova ("Board") has unanimously recommended that shareholders VOTE FOR Richard S. Warzala, Alexis P. Michas, Darius G. Nevin, Mitchell I. Quain, Yvonne E. Schlaeppli and Gregory A. Woods.

AstroNova's Board is comprised of current and former executives, public company directors, investment managers, and capital markets advisors. The directors have significant experience in corporate governance, M&A, finance, sales & marketing, operations, legal, international business, and technology. Collectively, they bring a diverse mix of skills, professional experiences, and perspectives relevant to AstroNova's strategic objectives:

- Richard S. Warzala, Lead Independent Director, brings over 40 years of operational and leadership experience to the Board having successfully led the significant growth of industrial technologies businesses that served a broad variety of industries. Presently, he is the Chairman, President and Chief Executive of Allient Inc. (Nasdaq: ALNT), with an enterprise value of approximately $600 million. Under his leadership, Allient has grown revenue both organically and through acquisitions from $15 million in 2002 to over $530 million currently. As a proven leader, Mr. Warzala brings to the Board highly relevant and deep expertise in international business growth and development, strategic thinking and planning, mergers and acquisitions, technical product sales and marketing, operational excellence utilizing lean principles and corporate governance.
- Alexis Michas brings extensive M&A and capital markets expertise to the Board as the Founder and Managing Partner of Juniper Investment Company, as well as deep corporate governance experience through his service on other public and large private company boards. He has a proven track record of successful private equity management across a range of sectors and has highly relevant director experience as the Non-Executive Chair of the board of BorgWarner, Inc.
- Darius G. Nevin is a highly respected finance executive with more than 30 years of experience, including as the Chief Financial Officer of Protection One, Inc., a then publicly traded security monitoring company prior to its acquisition. He served as a director and chair of the audit committee on WCI Communities, Inc., then publicly traded and acquired in 2010, and is a director at Alarm.com Holdings. Mr. Nevin's deep financial expertise, history of overseeing successful IPOs and acquisitions, as well as his direct executive experience in turning around struggling businesses, make him qualified to serve on our Board.
- Mitchell Quain is a renowned financial leader who has advised and served on the Boards of some of the world's most prestigious organizations, including Carlyle Group, and has a long history of service as a public company director having served on several boards including MagneTek, Hardinge, Tecumseh Products, RBC Bearings (NYSE: RBC), Titan International (NYSE: TWI), and HEICO Corp. (NYSE: HEI), among others. His extensive background and global perspective on operations, capital allocation, and corporate strategy make him an invaluable member of the Board.

- Yvonne Schlaeppli brings a diverse background of legal, M&A, international strategy, and highly relevant senior leadership experience. Her years serving on public company boards, roles as the legal counsel to Global Enterprise Technologies and senior leader at Johnson Controls, and as corporate advisor to global corporations make her a valuable member of our Board.
- Gregory Woods has served as Chief Executive Officer of the Company since February 1, 2014, and as a director since January 2014. As CEO and former COO, he has led the Company during a transformational time, setting a path towards a global leadership position with diversified end markets, new capabilities and a clear path to growth and improved profitability ahead.

The Board continually reviews the composition of its members' mix of skills and expertise and focuses on regular refreshment with directors who would be additive to the Company's strategic priorities. Recently, the Board was expanded from five to six members after the addition of seasoned finance executive Darius G. Nevin, former CFO of Protection One and current director at Alarm.com Holdings. His financial acumen, governance background, and leadership experiences make him an excellent addition to the Board.

The Board is also majority independent with all members, with the exception of Gregory Woods, being independent.

AstroNova Unanimously Rejects Unqualified Askeladden Nominees

The Board does not endorse the director nominations of Jeff Sands, Shawn Kravetz, Ryan Oviatt, Boyd Roberts, and Samir Patel put forth by Patel and Askeladden. The Board does not believe the dissident nominees bring relevant experience or additive perspectives to the Board and recommends that shareholders do not vote for the nominees.

In the coming days and weeks, AstroNova will provide shareholders with more information related to the Company's strategy to deliver long-term shareholder value, the strength of the Board and management team, and the potential for Askeladden's nominees to disrupt the strategic inflection point the Company is advancing to drive growth and measurably improve profitability.

In the interim, AstroNova strongly urges shareholders to simply DISCARD and NOT vote using the GOLD proxy card sent by Patel and Askeladden and wait until they receive the Company's materials so they can make a fully informed decision before voting.
