

REVOLVE GROUP, INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

(Effective as of June 6, 2019)

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Revolve Group, Inc. (the “Company”) is to ensure that the Board is properly constituted to meet its fiduciary obligations to the Company and its stockholders and that the Company has and follows appropriate corporate governance standards. To accomplish this purpose the Committee shall:

- assist the Board in identifying individuals who are qualified to become Board members in accordance with criteria approved by the Board and select, or recommend to the Board that the Board select, specific individuals as director nominees for each meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected;
- recommend members for each Board committee;
- develop and recommend to the Board corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company; and
- oversee performance evaluations of the Board and of its committees.

The Committee shall undertake the specific duties and responsibilities as are enumerated-in or consistent-with this charter, and has authority to undertake such other specific duties as the Board from time-to-time prescribes.

MEMBERSHIP

The Committee shall consist of at least two Board members. Committee members shall be appointed by the Board and may be removed by the Board in its discretion. The Board may designate one Committee member as its chairperson. If the Board does not designate a chairperson then the Committee may designate a chairperson by majority vote of its members. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate.

Committee members shall not have a relationship with the Company or its affiliates that may interfere with their independence, and shall otherwise be deemed “Independent Directors” as defined by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange or the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. (the “Exchange Rules”), and such other qualifications as may be established by the Board from time-to-time; provided, however, that the Company may rely upon the “controlled company” exemption and/or any phase-in rules or interpretations applicable to newly listed companies in connection with an initial public offering.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The following are the principal recurring Committee responsibilities. The Committee may perform such other functions as are consistent with its purpose and applicable law, rules and regulations and as the Board or the Committee deem appropriate. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee’s policies and procedures shall remain flexible, to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The Committee's responsibilities and duties shall include:

Corporate Governance Generally

- developing and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company, and recommending to the Board changes to these guidelines as necessary;
- reviewing proposed changes to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws and making recommendations on any proposed changes to the Board;
- determining the manner in which stockholders may send communications to the Board (as a whole or individually), as well as the process by which stockholder communications will be relayed to the Board and recommending what the Board's response, if any, should be;
- reviewing any proposals properly submitted by stockholders for action at stockholder meetings and recommending any Board action to be taken in response to each such proposal;
- assisting the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for Chief Executive Officer succession planning;
- overseeing Board and Board committee compliance with applicable laws and regulations, including those promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the applicable Exchange Rules;
- reviewing its own charter and processes annually;

Board Composition, Evaluation and Nominating Activities

- overseeing the Board's annual performance and self-evaluation process, including, without limitation, conducting surveys of director observations, suggestions and preferences regarding how effectively the Board and each committee operates; reporting its conclusions from the evaluation process, including an assessment of the Board's and the committees' compliance with the principles set forth in the corporate governance guidelines and in the relevant committee charters; as well as identifying areas in which the Board and the committees could improve performance;
- reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding Board composition and size and determine the relevant criteria (including any minimum qualifications) for Board membership including issues of character, integrity, judgment, diversity, age, independence, skills, education, expertise, business acumen, business experience, length of service, understanding the Company's business, other commitments and the like;
- evaluating the "independence" of directors and director nominees against applicable rules and regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Exchange Rules and other applicable laws;

- establishing procedures for submission of candidates for election to the Board (including recommendations by stockholders of the Company);
- establishing procedures for identifying and evaluating nominees for Director;
- reviewing and recommending candidates, including candidates recommended by the stockholders, for election to the Board at the annual stockholder meeting or any special stockholder meeting where directors are to be elected, in compliance with the Company's policies and procedures for consideration of Board candidates;
- identifying, considering and recommending candidates to fill new Board positions or vacancies (in performing these duties, the Committee shall have authority to retain and terminate any search firm used to identify Board candidates, at the Company's expense, and shall also have authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms);
- considering the Board's leadership structure, including separation of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer roles and/or appointment of a lead independent director of the Board, either permanently or for specific purposes, and make such recommendations to the Board with respect thereto as the Committee deems appropriate;
- evaluating and recommending membership termination of individual directors for cause or for other appropriate reasons;
- reviewing the disclosure included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K regarding the Company's director nomination process and other corporate governance matters;
- overseeing the orientation and continuing education activities for Board members and evaluating Board member participation in such activities in accordance with applicable listing standards;
- considering policies or practices regarding directors' ownership of Company stock;
- evaluate compensation for non-employee directors, engaging outside consultants and/or the Human Resources Department when appropriate, and make recommendations to the Board regarding non-employee director compensation;
- periodically review and recommend to the Board for approval compensation and benefits, including equity awards, for non-employee directors;

Board Committees

- periodically reviewing the charter and composition of each Board committee and making recommendations to the Board for creating additional Board committees, changing committee mandates, or dissolving Board committees; and
- recommending to the Board persons to be members and chairpersons of the various Board committees.

In performing its duties, the Committee shall have the authority, at the Company's expense, to retain, hire, and obtain advice, reports or opinions from internal or external legal counsel and expert advisors.

MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities, but no less than two times per year. The Committee may meet either in person or telephonically, and at such times and places as the Committee determines. The Committee may establish its own meeting schedule, which it will provide to the Board. The chairperson of the Committee shall preside at each meeting. If a chairperson is not designated or present then the Committee members present may designate an acting chairperson. The Committee may act by written consent (which may include electronic consent), which shall constitute a valid Committee action if it has been executed by each Committee member and shows the date of execution.

The Committee may invite to its meetings any Company director, officer or employee and such other persons as it deems appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. The Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, including non-employee directors who are not Committee members, to meet its responsibilities.

A majority of the total number of Committee members will constitute a quorum of the Committee. If a quorum is present, a majority of the members of the Committee present will be empowered to act on behalf of the Committee.

MINUTES

The Committee shall maintain written meeting minutes, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the corresponding Board meeting. Any written consent will be effective on the date of the last signature and will be filed with the minutes of the corresponding Board meeting.

REPORTS

The Committee shall report regularly to the Board on its actions and recommendations. Consistent with this charter, the Committee shall report to the Board regarding its recommendations for director nominees for the next annual stockholder meeting or any special stockholder meeting at which directors are to be elected or to fill vacancies or newly created directorships on the Board or committees. In addition, the Committee shall report regularly to the Board (i) following Committee meetings, (ii) regarding its review and assessment of corporate governance matters and such other matters as are relevant to the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities and (iii) regarding such recommendations as the Committee may deem appropriate. The report to the Board may take the form of an oral report by the chairperson or any other Committee member designated by the Committee to make such report.

SUBCOMMITTEES

The Committee may form subcommittees for any purpose that the Committee deems appropriate and may delegate to such subcommittees such power and authority as the Committee deems appropriate. If so designated, each such subcommittee will establish its own schedule and maintain written meeting minutes, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the corresponding Board meeting. The Committee shall not delegate to a subcommittee any power or authority required by law, regulation or listing standard to be exercised by the Committee as a whole.

AUTHORITY TO RETAIN ADVISORS

In performing its responsibilities, the Committee shall have the authority to engage and obtain advice, reports or opinions from internal or independent counsel and other expert advisors, as it determines necessary or appropriate, to carry out its duties. The Committee shall have sole authority to retain and terminate search firms to assist in identifying director candidates and setting non-employee director compensation, including sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms. The Company will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, to pay any such search firms or any other outside advisors hired by the Committee and any Committee administrative expenses that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out the Committee's activities.

COMPENSATION

Committee members shall receive such fees, if any, for their service as Committee members as may be determined by the Board in its sole discretion.

COMMITTEE CHARTER REVIEW

The Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this charter annually and shall submit any recommended charter changes to the Board for approval.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW

The Committee shall review and assess its performance annually. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Committee may choose to forgo an annual evaluation of itself pursuant to the exemption provided to "controlled companies" for so long as the Company remains a controlled company.
