

Social Security Webinar

November 10, 2020

Social Security is a part of everyone's life. With the expected wave of "Baby Boomers" reaching retirement age and employers encouraging financial planning, Social Security information and speakers are a welcome resource.

Date: Tuesday, November 10

Time: 11:00 am and 3:00 pm EST

Register: Reserve your spot in advance through the Signet Learning Portal Registration

QUESTIONS:

- At what age should you file?
- Is it too early to think about Social Security?
- Can you work and receive Social Security benefits?
- Divorced? Can you file on a previous spouse's earnings?
- Are widow(ers) eligible?
- What's the quickest way to receive your benefit?
- Do you have to file for Medicare?

These questions will be answered by Robert Fenn, Public Affairs Specialist, of the Social Security Administration. Robert will provide Social Security related knowledge, in a clear and concise manner, that will help work place team members.
