Same-restaurant sales at Olive Garden were up 10% to 11% for fiscal June, which reflected a 7% to 8% increase in guest counts and a 3% increase in check average. The check average increase was a result of a 1% to 2% increase in pricing and a 1% to 2% increase from menu mix changes. Last year, Olive Garden had a 4% to 5% increase in same-restaurant sales.

Same-restaurant sales at Red Lobster were up approximately 9% for fiscal June, which reflected a 4% to 5% increase in guest counts and a 4% to 5% increase in check average. The check average increase was a result of a 1% to 2% increase in pricing and a 3% increase from menu mix changes. Last year, Red Lobster had a 2% to 3% decrease in same-restaurant sales.

This June’s sales results at Red Lobster and Olive Garden were positively affected by a shift in the Independence Day holiday into fiscal July of 2006. Last year, the holiday was in fiscal June. Darden estimates that the shift positively affected same-restaurant sales at both companies by approximately one percentage point.

Darden Restaurants, Inc., headquartered in Orlando, FL, owns and operates over 1,380 Red Lobster, Olive Garden, Bahama Breeze, Smokey Bones, and Seasons 52 restaurants with annual sales of $5.3 billion.
