Amedisys Welcomes Adam Holton as Chief People Officer

9/27/2022

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 27, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Amedisys, Inc. (NASDAQ:AMED), a leading home health, hospice, personal care and high-acuity care company, announced today that Adam Holton will join the Company as Chief People Officer.

With more than 20 years of experience, Holton is an expert in leading people strategies that drive exceptional business outcomes including talent acquisition, total rewards, organizational and leadership development, employee engagement, talent management and metrics and analytics.

Most recently, Holton was the Chief Human Resources Officer at Numotion, an organization dedicated to improving the lives of people with disabilities. He previously served in the same role at CHS, Inc, a F100 diversified global agribusiness cooperative that creates connections to empower agriculture. Holton has also held several HR leadership positions with General Electric, USAA and Bank One.

Holton served for eight years in the United States Marine Corps as an Infantry Officer, stationed at Camp Pendleton, California and Quantico, Virginia. In 2004, he deployed with a Marine Corps reserve Infantry Battalion as a Company Commander to Lutafiyah, Iraq, as a part of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

“At Amedisys, we strive to create an exceptional employee experience because our people are the heart of what we do,” stated President and Chief Executive Officer Chris Gerard. “In an increasingly competitive talent market, the attraction and retention of high performing diverse talent is key, and Adam’s depth of expertise will help us achieve this strategy so we can continue to deliver the highest quality of care to our patients and their families.”

“People are the most valued and essential part of any organization. I am passionate about being a part of a caregiving culture that attracts, supports and develops people to their fullest and helping Amedisys achieve its vision,” stated Chief People Officer Adam Holton. “I’m honored and excited to join this exceptional company and look forward to contributing to its important mission of allowing patients to receive the care they need where they most want to be, in the home.”
